Assistant
ResignsMcGeorge Bundy
To Presidency Of
Ford Foundation

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP) — The Texas White House announced today the resignation of McGeorge Bundy as President Johnson's special assistant for national security affairs. The future of the job was left cloudy.

Bundy, 46, will leave the White House staff Feb. 28 to become president of the Ford Foundation at a reported salary of $75,000 a year. His present salary is $28,500 a year.

Press secretary Bill D. Moyers in announcing Bundy's forthcoming departure, said Johnson wrote Bundy a handwritten note today accepting the resignation "with genuine regret."

Moyers emphasized that Johnson has nearly three months in which to decide what to do with the position Bundy filled. The job became a potent force in government when the former Harvard College dean was named to it in 1961 by President John F. Kennedy.

There has been speculation that Johnson may leave the post unfilled, and rely more directly on the State Department.

Big Merger
Unites ABC
And IT&T

NEW YORK (AP) — American Broadcasting Companies Inc. and the International Telephone & Telegraph Corp. have agreed to merge into a $1.8-billion concern operating in nearly every phase of the communications industry.

The merger, approved by the boards of directors of the two companies Tuesday night, would involve a stock transaction of between $350 and $400 million.

Harold S. Geneen, chairman and president of I.T.&T., and Leonard H. Goldenson, president of ABC, said in a joint statement:

"The consummation of the arrangement is subject to the approval of the shareholders of each company and to the approval of the Federal Communications Commission and other appropriate government agencies and the obtaining of a favorable tax ruling."

The impact of the merger would also be felt strongly abroad. I.T.&T. is a major producer of radio, television and appliances in Europe, Latin America and the Far East.

One of the conditions of the merger, said the joint statement, "will be the continued autonomous operation management of American Broadcasting Companies Inc. by its present management as a separate subsidiary of International Telephone & Telegraph Corp."

In Crash At Pilot Grove

Two persons were killed and a third critically injured in a two-car collision at 10:15 a. m. Wednesday on Cooper County Route 135 about 1½ miles south of Pilot Grove.

Troop F Highway Patrol headquarters at Jefferson City identified the dead as:

J. W. Lewis, 37, Columbia, Mo., the driver of one of the cars involved. His body was taken to the Thatcher Funeral Home, Booneville.

Harry Joe Kanenbley, 67, Thousand Oaks, Calif., the husband of the driver of the second car involved. His body was taken to the William Woods Funeral Home, Booneville.

In critical condition at St. Joseph's Hospital in Booneville, the patrol said, is Mrs. Georgia A. Kanenbley, 55, the driver of the second car.

The crash occurred in the southbound lane of traffic, the patrol reported, as the northbound Lewis car was passing another car on a hill. The Kanenbley auto was southbound. Both vehicles were demolished.

Sampling Shows
Packages Well
Wrapped This Year

Postmaster Maurice F. Hogan announced today that Christmas gift mailing has started in earnest here. Sampling of most packages show that Sedalians are beginning to take the advice the Post Office Department gives each year in how to wrap gift parcels.

To avoid delay or even loss in the gift packages Sedalians mail he urges mailers pay particular attention to wrapping and legible addressing. Special care should be taken to see each package is tightly stuffed with cushioning paper so that nothing rattles around inside. Use a strong box and heavy wrapping paper with heavy cord tied twice around the package each way. Before wrapping place a slip with the address and contents list inside the parcel just in case the outer wrapping is torn off. Use legible handwriting or printing when addressing the outside of the package. The address and return address should appear one side only.

Parcels are generally shipped in bags and often heavier items rest on top of smaller, lighter packages. Poor packaging and illegible or incorrect addressing accounts for about half a million undelivered parcels each Christmas, and this means thousands of disappointed friends and relatives. Insure each parcel.

The postmaster said, "The use of ZIP Codes by mailers does help speed up the process because often if the city and state are unreadable the ZIP Code will direct the mail to the post office from which it will be delivered. Clerks in that post office, being more familiar with local addresses, may be able to figure out the person to whom the mail should be delivered."

Hogan said that there are still some of the 1964 Christmas stamps available along with the 1965 Angel Gabriel Christmas stamp which when used gives first class service to Christmas cards.

"So check those mailing lists, determine how many stamps you'll need and buy them this week so that you can avoid the last minute 'rush' of next week," he continued. "Of course," he added, "we appreciate getting all those cards mailed early. Mailers can give us a boost if they will separate the 'in town' and 'out of town' cards by using the labels furnished at the post office, separating, facing and tying them in proper bundles before bringing to the post office."

On Toward Space Record

SPACE CENTER, Houston, Tex. (AP) — Astronauts Frank Borman and James Lovell drove the Gemini 7 space ship on today toward a two-week endurance record, while a long-shot chance remained that the rendezvous with Gemini 6 could be attempted a day early.

At Cape Kennedy, a crucial ground rehearsal for the Gemini 6 launch was to start shortly after noon, following replacement of a troublesome computer.

It took five hours less time to install the new computer than the crew had calculated, and a space agency spokesman said there remained "an outside

Police Probe Train
'Derailment' Try Here

Police are investigating several leads in recent incidents of spikes being driven between joints in the rail along the M-K-T Railroad tracks near the Tenth Street crossing, but no arrests have been made in the case.

Chief of Police William Miller pointed out Tuesday, however, that an attempt to derail a train is a federal offense and could result in severe prosecution. Miller said in a conference with a special agent for the railroad, the agent had indicated prosecution to the fullest extent in the event police made an apprehension.

Twice in the past week police have found railroad spikes driven between points in the rails near Tenth Street.

Besides property damage and potential injury to train crews in a derailment, police fear the possibility of a major fire or explosion should railcars containing flammable fuels be overturned.

Accusations
Against U. S.

MOSCOW (AP) — Premier Alexei N. Kosygin has accused the United States of whipping up war tensions, arming West Germany against the Soviet Union and killing defenseless people in Viet Nam.

In a restatement of recent Soviet comments on foreign affairs, Kosygin said Soviet leaders could not meet with President Johnson so long as the war in Viet Nam continues.

Kosygin's remarks, reported today by the official Soviet news agency Tass, were made Monday in an interview with James Reston, an associate editor of the New York Times.

It was the third interview Kosygin has given to a foreign journalist since he succeeded Premier Nikita Khrushchev in October 1964. A Turkish journalist and a British newspaper owner saw him earlier.

Kosygin concluded the interview with an expression of hope that war would not hang over the world — after earlier accusing the United States of "creating an atmosphere conducive to war" in Europe.

"We do not want tension built up in any part of the world," Kosygin said. "We want to bend every effort in every part of the world to achieve these ends."

"To this effort, the United States is the principal barrier."

"We could have the best possible relations with the American people. We value the American people's wisdom, talents and abilities — all their achievements. We are ready to learn from them to develop technology and science, and to organize production."

This kind of statement is seldom heard publicly in the Soviet Union and was not immediately published here. The rest of Kosygin's remarks followed lines made familiar by Pravda editorials denouncing the United States.

If additional troubles develop, Gemini 6 could be launched as late as Friday, Dec. 17, for the effort to chase down and fly in formation with Gemini 7.

The 37-year-old Gemini 7 pilots, Air Force Lt. Col. Borman and Navy Cmdr. Lovell, neared the 1.5-million-mile mark in their long flight and were reported still in healthy moods despite the four days of cramped isolation in space. Their spacecraft continued to work like a charm.

They entered their 58th orbit at 9:35 a.m. (EST).

Elite Unit
Of 500 Men
Overpowered

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — A strong Viet Cong force encircled and virtually destroyed an elite South Vietnamese Ranger battalion today near the coastal town of Tam Ky, 350 miles northeast of Saigon.

The Communists struck from all sides, inflicting heavy casualties on the Vietnamese troops as well as their American advisers. Between 30 and 50 wounded Vietnamese rangers were lifted out of the battle area by helicopter.

The attack broke a two-day lull in the ground action and came after a Viet Cong offer to call off the war for 12 hours starting Christmas Eve "to allow people on the other side to celebrate Christmas in peace."

Although security regulations prevented identification of the ranger unit, it was described as one of the best in the South Vietnamese army and had been a veteran of heavy combat. The battle erupted near the vital north-south coastal highway.

A Vietnamese battalion usually numbers about 500 men.

U.S. air attacks continued unabated over North and South Viet Nam. Bridges and roads around Dien Bien Phu were attacked.

He notified Gov. Warren E. Hearnes Tuesday he is quitting to join the staff of the Arts Council of America effective Jan. 1. It is the national association of state and local arts councils.

Adams was instrumental in getting the Missouri Council started and persuading the legislature to appropriate a fund to aid statewide participation in cultural activities.

The governor also announced the Democratic committee in the 6th state Senatorial District of North St. Louis has nominated City Judge Edward T. Linehan for the seat formerly held by Sen. John P. Barrett, D-St. Louis.

Barrett resigned to become jury commissioner. The special election will be held Jan. 14, the same day as a statewide special election on three constitutional amendment proposals.

The governor appointed Raymond Krebs of Springfield to the State Water Pollution Board succeeding the late Freeman R. Johnson of Joplin.

He named two bridge commissions to enter into compacts with Illinois for proposed new bridges at Crystal City and Ste. Genevieve.

On the Crystal City commission are Edwin Matthes of Desoto, Walter Steinburk of Imperial and Thomas G. Hagen of Crystal City.

Cut Bomber Force

'New Missions'
For Some Bases

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara announced today actions that will reduce the U.S. long-range bomber force to about a third of its present strength, but hinted that a new advanced plane may be built.

McNamara also disclosed planned cutbacks in the Continental Air Defense and Early Warning Systems because of what he called "the reduced Soviet bomber threat."

These developments were formally disclosed in the announcement of details of a planned elimination or reduction of 149 military bases in the United States and overseas at a claimed saving of $410 million a year.

The moves with respect to the Air Force had been reported in advance, in outline, and had drawn formidable opposition in Congress.

McNamara said "the basic bomber force and the base structure of the Strategic Air Command will be adjusted while maintaining the required strategic nuclear capability."

He added that "this will be accomplished by phasing out of the inventory the older models of the B52 bombers and all B58 bombers."

The defense secretary did not spell out the number of bombers, but analysis of the base actions, including SAC's withdrawal from six bases, showed that the present force of 680 long range bombers — 600 B52s and all 80 supersonic B58s — will be reduced by 1971 to the 255 later models of the eight-jet B52s.

McNamara said that "certain . . . bases from which B52 operations are being removed are being retained for a new mission which will be disclosed subsequently."

There was not further detail on this new mission.

Informed sources said "the full decision on the strategic offensive forces has not been announced."

The sources said "we have have reason to believe that the one to be finally announced will closely incorporate most of the Air Force's ideas on the subject."

This was taken to mean that McNamara is expected to approve adaptation of the TFX, now being developed as a fighter, into a bomber version to be called the B111.

In his statement, McNamara said: "The majority of the actions announced today result from basic force level and weapons systems changes which require the realignment of military forces and which permit the future consolidation, reduction or discontinuance of military facilities."

Four SAC bases will be closed. They are: Walker Air Force Base, Roswell, N.M.; Clinton Sherman Air Force Base, Burns Flat, Okla.; Sewart Air Force Base, Smyrna, Tenn.; and Kincheloe Air Force Base, Kinross, Mich.

SAC will transfer Turner Air Force Base, Albany, Ga., to the Navy and Biggs Air Force Base, El Paso, Tex., to the Army for other missions.

On Shops Law Repeal

Labor Leaders
Running Scared

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Despite assurances from President Johnson, organized labor leaders say they are running scared in their drive in Congress to wipe out state laws that ban union-shop contracts.

Top AFL-CIO officers publicly voice no doubts that Johnson will live up to his pledge to push for repeal of Section 14B of the Taft-Hartley Act.

But privately they are worried that lukewarm administration support may mean defeat of the repeal fight for the foreseeable future.

Section 14B permits the states to outlaw union-shop contracts under which all employees must join the union. Nineteen states have such laws. The union shop is legal under the federal labor law in the 31 other states which do not specifically prohibit it.

With Congress due to convene next month, labor leaders say they still have no firm commitment from administration leaders on when the repeal bill will be brought up in the Senate or how hard Democratic leaders will fight to crush a renewed

To Test 'Drunken' Drivers

Breathalyzer For Pettis County

Pettis County is scheduled to be one of 11 counties in the Highway Patrol's 13-county Troop A area which will be issued a Breathalyzer to determine degree of intoxication in suspected drunk drivers, but local authorities have received no word as yet on when the unit will arrive.

Steps toward obtaining equipment and training personnel to enforce the new chemical breath test law which went into effect on Oct. 13 have been slow thus far, but are apparently picking up.

The new law—passed by the last session of the Missouri legislature—provides that if a law officer has reasonable grounds to suspect a motorist of driving while intoxicated, the officer can insist upon a breath test of the suspect. If the driver refuses the test, his operator's license can be revoked for one year and prosecution can continue on the testimony of the arresting officer or other witnesses.

Speaking here Monday before the Sedalia Rotary Club, Maj. K. K. Johnson, director of training and personnel for the Highway Patrol, reported the patrol has ordered 75 of the Breathalyzer devices and said 13 members of the patrol had been trained in South Carolina on the use of the equipment in order that they might train other members of the patrol.

The Breathalyzer is one of three devices approved in early October by the State Health Department to indirectly measure the alcoholic content of a driver's blood through the chemical breath test. Both the Breathalyzer and the Intoximeter are stationary machines valued in the neighborhood of $700, while the third approved device is known as a DPC, short for Double Piston Cylinder, a portable unit.

All three take measured samples of the suspected drunk driver's exhaled air and work on the principle that there is a direct proportion between the amount of alcohol in the blood and the amount in exhaled air. Through the breath test, the percentage of alcohol in the exhaled air can be measured to determine the amount of alcohol in the blood stream.

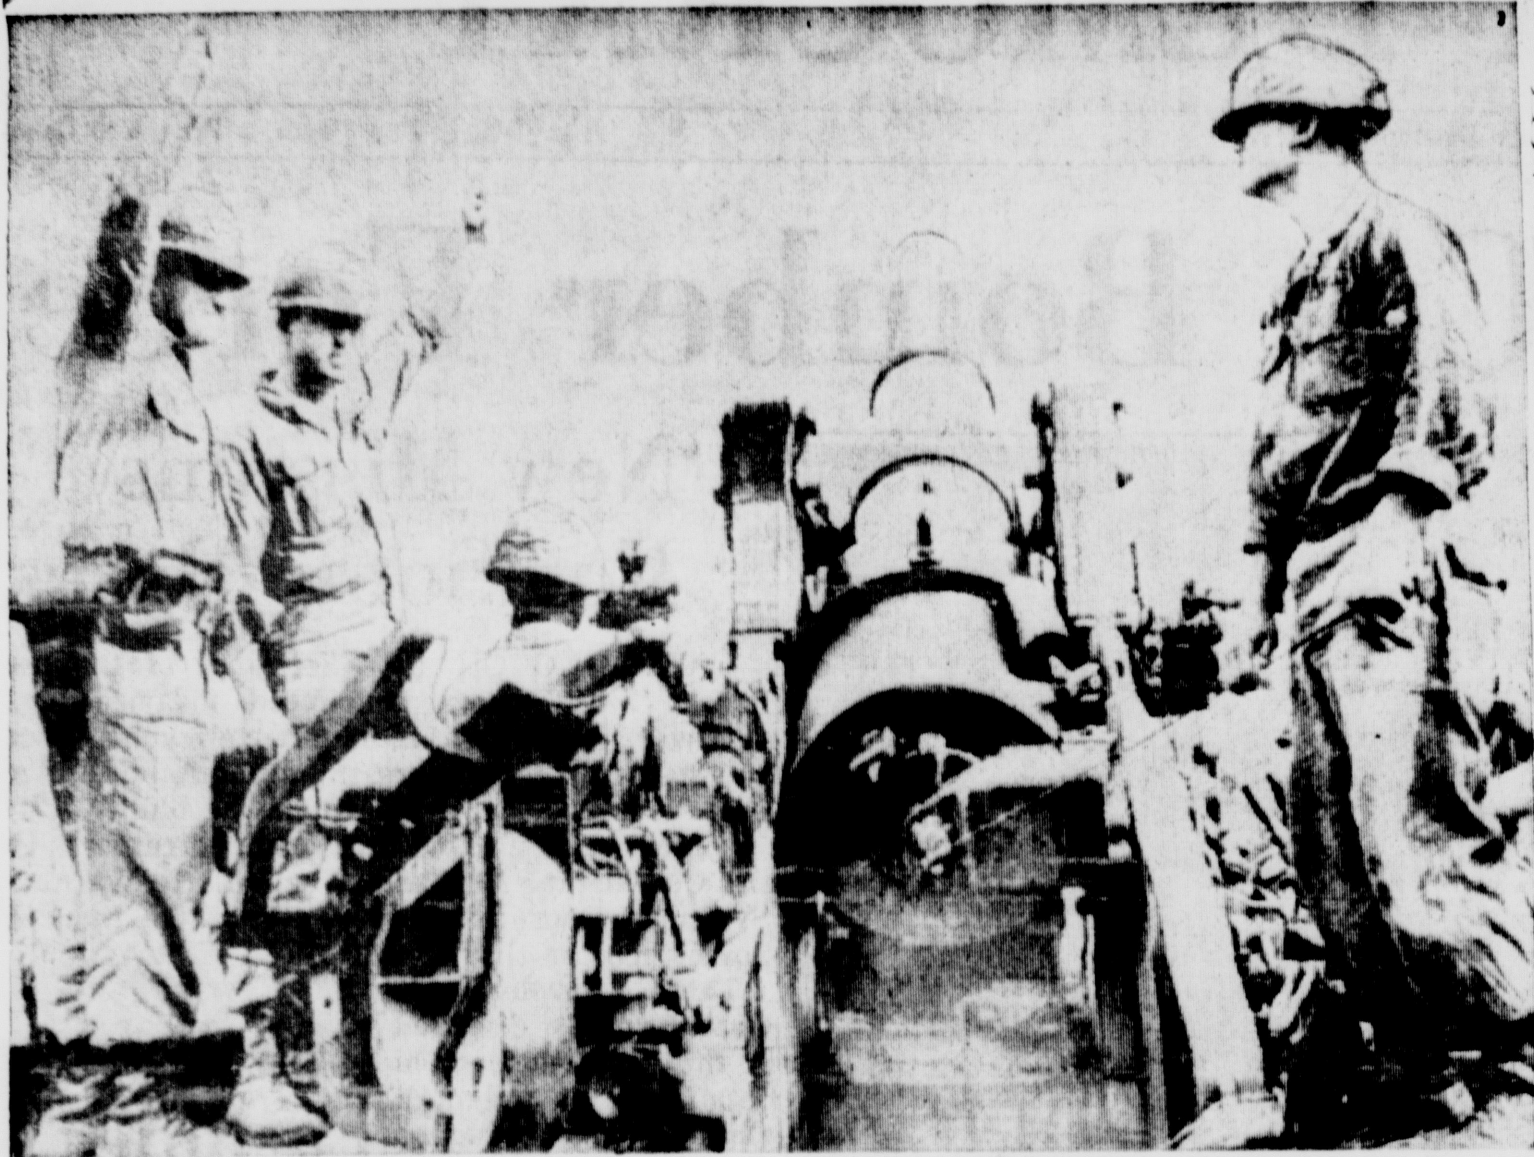

More than 15 per cent of alcohol in a driver's blood will constitute prima facie evidence that the suspected motorist was drunk when picked up by the officer.

Sgt. E. W. Van Winkle, zone sergeant stationed here with the patrol, pointed out that he has received no word as yet when the Breathalyzer unit will arrive. Training of patrol troopers in the Troop A area in the use of the device is expected to start about the first of January, however.

Preliminary plans are to locate the Pettis County Breathalyzer unit at Sedalia police headquarters, Sgt. Van Winkle said, which is manned 24 hours a day and would save patrol troopers waking the Pettis County jailer at late hours. The patrol's Breathalyzer could also be used by the city police, Van Winkle said, although Highway Patrolmen would have to administer the tests.

The city of Sedalia, however, (Please turn to Page 8, Col. 8)

Ecumenical Council Called Greatest In Church History

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope Paul VI and the white-robed bishops of the Roman Catholic Church closed the Vatican Ecumenical Council under a magnificent blue sky today and declared it the greatest assembly in the history of their church.

More than 100,000 Romans and pilgrims thronged St. Peter's Square for the outdoor ceremonies ending the council which Pope John XXIII had opened on Oct. 11, 1962.

Princes, government heads, foreign ministers and other dignitaries from nearly 100 nations watched as the 2,300 bishops moved in procession from the Apostolic Palace across the square to the steps of St. Peter's Basilica.

After them came Pope Paul on his portable throne.

The Vatican published a papal brief formally closing the council and declaring it the greatest of the 21 general assemblies of the Church. It said all Roman Catholics were bound to accept its decisions, which ushered in a new era for the Church of reform within and improved contacts with the rest of the world.

The brief also declared invalid all arguments that had been raised against the council's decisions.

Unusual details marked the ceremony, with Pope Paul giving $90,000 in checks for charities in five nations as "a symbol of the charity of the entire Church, united around the Pope in the persons of his bishops."

The checks will mean $30,000 for a hospital in Bethlehem, Jordan; $20,000 for community projects by a religious order in Argentina; $15,000 each for agricultural training in southern

Dry Throats Come from Pure Oxygen Supply

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Astronauts' Condition: The voices of Borman and Lovell hoarsen presumably from the drying effect of breathing pure oxygen in their space cabin. A flight surgeon says they're nevertheless in fine fettle and getting plenty of sleep, food and water.

Mission Status: Prospects dim somewhat for launching Gemini 6 ahead of schedule to overtake and fly with Gemini 7. Workmen are forced to replace a too-sensitive computer in the pursuit craft being readied for a Dec. 13 takeoff at Cape Kennedy.

Weather: Clouds interfere with some experiments but no threat to the mission is foreseen.

Achievements: The astronauts snap good pictures of earth's features for future navigation use. Space firsts achieved so far are Lovell's shucking his protective spacesuit to fly in cooler comfort of cotton long underwear, and formation flying of Gemini 7 with the discarded second stage of its booster rocket.

Officials said the plane apparently was turning back to the Rodeos airport on this Spanish Atlantic island with one engine on fire. It had started for Las Palmas on Grand Canary Island.

The twin-engine plane carried 28 passengers and a crew of four. The passengers were believed to have been Swedes, Danes and Norwegians on a holiday.

JODRELL BANK, England (AP)—British scientist Sir Bernard Lovell says he expects the Russians to make a soft landing on the moon soon because the flight of Luna 8 probably gave them "a great deal of new information, which will enable them to correct the remaining minor faults."

Lovell, director of Britain's big radio-telescope tracking station, said the unmanned Soviet spaceship probably made a "hard landing" rather than crashed into the moon.

Luna 8's radio went dead when it hit the moon early Tuesday, and the Soviet news agency Tass said it failed in its final stages. It was the fourth Soviet attempt this year to make a soft landing.

Katz President Gives Pharmacy Scholarship

MORRIS R. SHLENSKY (right), president of the Katz Drug company, and Leslie L. Eisenbrandt, dean of the school of ained a plaque which will hang in the lobby of the new pharmacy building on the campus of U. M. K. C. recently ata pharmacy of the University of Missouri at Kansas City, ex-dinner at the Hotel Muehlebach.

A check for $26,240 establish- ing the M. R. Shlensky scholar- ship fund for students entering the school of pharmacy at the University of Missouri at Kan- sas City was presented to the school at a dinner at the Hotel Muehlebach, Kansas City.

The dinner honored Morris R. Shlensky, president of the Katz Drug Co., after whom the fund is named. Money from the fund will be used to pay the fees of three or four needy, deserving students entering the school of pharmacy each year.

One of two plaques was pre- sented to Shlensky by Randall M. Whaley, chancellor of U.M. K.C. The other plaque will hang in the lobby of the new Isaac and Michael H. Katz Memorial Pharmacy building on the cam- pus.

"We are honoring Morris

Shlensky because he acknowl- edges an acceptance of the value and power of an education," Whaley said. "He has a conviction that Kansas City is on the move and education is one of the instruments of growth in this community."

"He holds a conviction that even though the university has changed its name, it has gained state support that will help it move forward so that the city, state and nation can also move forward."

"He has an understanding of one of the elements of this mo- mentum — a concern for the in- dividual. A scholarship singles out one individual for help and helps him achieve his goals."

A Reminder Of Dramatic Watts Riots

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — "CBS Reports" review Tuesday night of the Los Angeles disturbances in August failed to add much to the average, newspaper-reading citizen's knowledge of the frightening Watts riots. It did serve as a dramatic reminder that they could break out again — perhaps in other places, in other summers or any season at all.

The hour program primarily was devoted to reshaping some of what narrator Bill Stout called "the incredible scene" of a civil war waged on the streets of a big, modern city. The program also had the advantage of being able to refer constantly to the McCone report to California's governor which was re- leased the day before.

The question to which the pro- gram promised an answer — was the outbreak of violence, arson and looting a riot or a revolt? — was answered almost perfunctorily. It was a revolt, said the narrator, paraphrasing a McCone report conclusion, "a formless, hopeless striking out."

But obviously the real answer is much more complex than that. Even if the program was not able to do much to further illu-

W. H. Adams Resigns

JEFFERSON CITY (AP) — Gov. Warren E. Hearnes an- nounced Tuesday William How- ard Adams of Blue Springs has resigned as chairman of the Missouri Council On The Arts. Adams, an official of the Adams Dairy, was instrumental in getting the 1965 legislature to set up a fund for state aid to en- courage statewide participation in the arts and cultural activi- ties.

He told the governor he is joining the staff of the Arts Council of America, effective Jan. 1. It is the National Association of State and Local Arts Councils.

minate a dark subject, it did give CBS a chance to show some very dramatic, and fright- ening, film taken at the height of the troubles.

ABC's "F Troop" is really Sergeant Bilko transported to the post-Civil War West. It also bears a resemblance to those wild, broad comedies of the silent movies. Most weeks it is a fast, funny and raucous show.

Forrest Tucker, who plays the cavalry sergeant, is as adroit a con man as Phil Silvers ever was, but considerably less noisy and devious. The captain is a simple-minded, accident-prone little fellow who evokes sym- pathy.

It may be a show primarily for the young audience, but on most Tuesday nights, it is the brightest thing in its time slot.

Ann Landers

Answers
Your Problems

Dear Ann Landers: Phooey on you for your reply to the young man who asked what to do about his girl friend, a brilliant young psychology major who had everything — including a mustache.

You said he ought to suggest that she bleach it or have it removed permanently by a specialist. Your advice was cruel and thoughtless. Excessive hair is a medical problem and should be overlooked. Would you think it good manners to comment on a receding chin or a limp?

If a young woman is brilliant and charming and appeals to the intellect, a mature man should be able to look right past her mustache and see the beauty of her mind and her soul. I am deeply disappointed in you. — HAIRY MARY.

Dear Mary: Sorry I let you down, Doll, but most men can see better than they can think.

True, excessive hair may be the result of a chemical imbalance in the system but that doesn't mean it should be overlooked. A girl who hides a beautiful soul and a brilliant mind behind a mustache makes the treasure hunt unnecessarily difficult for young men who are in search of beautiful souls and brilliant minds.

Dear Ann Landers: I am a 22-year-old college student whose world has just crumbled. Last night the 21-year-old girl I'm in love with told me all about herself. I was so ill this morning I couldn't make my 9 a.m. class.

Arietta and I have been going together for six months. She is beautiful, gay and behaves like the model young woman on any campus.

Last night she told me that she had given herself to a boy she went steady with in high school. They had talked about marriage and she persuaded her that she was foolish not to live life to the limit. They went together five months and broke up when he moved to another city.

I thought I wanted to marry Arietta but now I'm not sure. If she was able to fool me so completely will I ever be able to trust her? And how do I know there were not others?

Please help me. I'm sick with grief.—LIKE DEAD.

Dear Like: Better write off Arietta. The way your mind is operating you'll have her pictured as the town's Number One streetwalker within a week.

Did she ask you for an affidavit of your purity? If so would you have been able to produce one?

Love is forgiving. It is accepting people for what they are. You are unable to do this, so do both yourself and Arietta a favor and find a white-flower girl. (And lots of luck, Bub.)

Dear Ann Landers: Our son Donald is 13 years old. He thinks my husband and I are being unfair because we insist that he take turns with his sister doing the dishes.

Donald says a 13-year-old boy should not be asked to doissy stuff around the house. He is afraid some of his friends might hear about it and make fun of him.

My husband and I want to be fair. Will you give us your opinion?—CENSORED.

Dear Censored: There is nothing sissy about doing dishes. This is a household chore, just like emptying the trash, making the beds and scrubbing the floors. Chores should be done by both boys and girls without resentment or complaint.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Major Case Squad Nears Formation

Area law enforcement officers held a second organizational meeting at the Boone County courthouse in Columbia Tuesday aimed at forming a Mid-Missouri major case squad.

Representing the Sedalia Police Department at the session were Sgt. Charles Stuart and Officer Clarence Harrell.

The squad being formed will be similar to the highly successful M-squads in Missouri's metropolitan areas of Kansas City and St. Louis and would be called into service for the investigation of major crimes in the area.

According to Chief of Police William Miller, the squad would handle homicide, possibly kidnappings, sex crimes, and would supply local law enforcement agencies with information regarding the operations of burglary rings moving from one locality to another.

Chief Miller stated that the training program for the squad would begin Feb. 15, 1966, and last for three days before taking a break. Instruction would resume Feb. 22 for three more days.

The FBI will conduct the training course for members of the squad.

Miller said that at least three Sedalia policemen would attend the sessions, but could not be definite yet on who would be sent.

Eight counties have definitely expressed a willingness to form the squad. They are Pettis, Saline, Cooper, Cole, Randolph, Howard, Callaway and Boone. Several other counties may also join the group.

Truck Driver Killed In Crash With Train

TAYLORVILLE, Ill. (AP)—A truck driver was killed Tuesday in a collision with a passenger train at a crossing in Taylorville.

He was Raymond Price, 36, of Chillicothe, Mo., who was hauling soybean oil.

A spokesman for the Norfolk and Western Railroad said two engines and five cars of the Banner Blue passenger train derailed but none overturned. There were no reports of serious injuries among passengers.

The train was en route from Chicago to St. Louis.

Before they retired for the night, they received 90 minutes of uninterrupted music, including excerpts from the opera "La Boheme," Schumann's "Symphony No. 3," Rachmaninoff's "Symphony No. 2," "Water Music" by Handel and "Try to Remember."

When the list of longhair music was announced by a ground controller, Lovell commented: "Don't scare me."

The controller then told him: "We're sorry, but there will be no in-flight movies tonight."

Eugene Kranz, late-shift flight director, reported the Gemini 7 spacecraft was in great shape.

"The system's performance is outstanding," he said. "I can't think of any unique or significant problem that bothers us at this time."

Dr. Charles A. Berry, Gemini flight surgeon, reported Borman and Lovell in very fine shape.

"They've been getting plenty of sleep, food and water," Berry said. "The data we are receiving on heart rates, respiration and the like confirms what we saw on the earlier flights and bears out our pre-flight predictions on their health."

Berry said the voices of both were a bit hoarse — probably because of the pure oxygen they breathe, which has a tendency to dry out the tissues of eyes, nose and throat.

"We feel fine," reported Borman.

Major goal of the 14-day mission is to gather extensive medical data on man's functioning during long exposure to the space environment. Two weeks is the longest trip planned in the U.S. Apollo manned lunar landing program.

Lovell, who doffed his pressurized space suit Monday, continued to ride in his long underwear and reported he felt very comfortable.

"Does Jim know that he's been called the man in the flying underwear?" the ground asked.

"Great," laughed Borman.

The astronauts reported the experiment schedule worked out for them each day at Mission Control Center in Houston kept them occupied but did not rush them.

They planned today to snap more photos of land, space and weather features and make radiation and other measurements. They hoped to try again to send a message to earth via a concentrated beam of light called a laser. Clouds prevented the test Tuesday.

Spacecraft Speeds Along, Working Like a Charm

—By HOWARD BENEDICT
AP Aerospace Writer

SPACE CENTER, Houston, Tex. (AP)—The Gemini 7 astronauts, hearty and healthy after nearly four days in space, streaked on toward a record two weeks today while Gemini 6 planned a crucial ground rehearsal for next week's attempt to rendezvous the two high in the sky.

Air Force Lt. Col. Frank Borman and Navy Cmdr. James A. Lovell Jr. passed the 1 1/4-million-mile mark of their daring journey early today with their four-ton spacecraft working like a charm.

Gemini 7 began its 55th orbit at 4:46 a.m. (EST).

Space agency officials weren't sure whether Gemini 6 would get off the ground Sunday or Monday. A computer problem in the spacecraft considerably reduced the chances of a Sunday launching.

Officials said Monday was a more likely target date. If there are additional troubles, Gemini 6 could be launched as late as Friday, Dec. 17.

The computer's electronic memory became scrambled during a test at Cape Kennedy Tuesday and the instrument had to be replaced. This delayed the start of the Gemini 6 rehearsal at least 17 hours — until 5 p.m. (EST) today at the earliest.

The Gemini 6 astronauts, Navy Capt. Walter M. Schirra Jr. and Air Force Maj. Thomas P. Stafford, will need the computer to calculate their intricate orbit-shifting maneuvers during the planned 103,000-mile pursuit of Gemini 6.

The two pairs of astronauts hope to fly in formation, perhaps only inches apart, for about six hours.

Borman and Lovell shifted Gemini 7's orbital course Tuesday in a step toward a desired orbit for the rendezvous. Command pilot Borman fired jet thrusters to increase their speed by eight miles an hour and raised the low point of their path from 138 to 146 miles above the earth. The high point remained at 197 miles.

Later, they will alter course so both the high and low points are 185 miles. It is at this altitude that Gemini 6 hopes to complete its pursuit and move in close to Gemini 7.

The Gemini 7 pilots remained in excellent spirits, helped along by several hours of music piped from the ground to their cramped cabin.

Before they retired for the night, they received 90 minutes of uninterrupted music, including excerpts from the opera "La Boheme," Schumann's "Symphony No. 3," Rachmaninoff's "Symphony No. 2," "Water Music" by Handel and "Try to Remember."

When the list of longhair music was announced by a ground controller, Lovell commented: "Don't scare me."

Atoms May Answer Power Problems

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP) — Atomic energy may be the answer to New England's costly electrical power problems, according to a University of Rhode Island study.

New England's costly electric bill comes to more than $1.11 over the national average, according to the report. Dr. Roy G. Pulsen, associate professor of economics, blames the high cost on "fossil fuels." More than half the high monthly bill is due to freight costs of coal, still New England's No. 1 fuel.

Durable Old Bolshevik

The Soviet Union recently went all out for the 70th birthday of Anastas Mikoyan, who now holds the ceremonial post of chairman of the supreme presidium, or president. The old Bolshevik took over front pages of the Soviet press. He was awarded the Order of Lenin and wished "many more years" of service to the state. More than courtesy to the chief of state, the fulsome tribute was a testimonial to a remarkable career. The Kremlin's "great survivor" has seen Lenin, Trotsky, Stalin, Malenkov, Bulganin and finally his crony Khrushchev come and go. Through it all, political shrewdness, executive skill and the ability to pick the right side at the right time have kept the sad-eyed Armenian with the patchy little mustache close to the top. Despite declining health in recent years, he still ranks third in the Soviet power pyramid, after party chief Leonid Brezhnev and Premier Alexei Kosygin.

Long a professional trouble shooter, he visited Havana in 1960 as Cuban Premier Castro was beginning a flirtation with the Kremlin's ideological rivals in Peking.

Major Goals Accomplished By Council

VATICAN CITY (AP) — The Vatican Ecumenical Council accomplished these major goals from its opening on Oct. 11, 1962, to the completion of its work Tuesday:

— Changed the traditionally monarchistic concept of the Roman Catholic Church's government to a more democratic form by declaring that bishops share with the Pope in governing the Church. It voted for the establishment of a synod of bishops from around the world to put the historic new concept into action. Pope Paul VI promised the first synod would meet by the end of 1967. The council also recommended modernization of the conservative Vatican Curia, the central Church administration and Pope Paul ordered it done.

— Permitted the replacement of Latin in the Mass and most other sacraments with local languages to make church services more meaningful to the average worshiper.

— Agreed that the ways of life and dress of nuns, monks and friars must change from medieval custom to become consonant with modern times.

— Voted for a program of common worship and other efforts to bring Roman Catholics and other Christians together. This included joint studies to ward a common Bible.

To Induct New District Scout Chief Thursday

Gordon Buckner, Marshall, will be inducted as Twin Forks Boy Scout District chairman at the meeting of the district committee and commissioners meeting, to be held Thursday, at the Broadway Presbyterian Educational Building, Sedalia, at 7:30 p. m.

Taking office, also will be Lacy Belt, Sedalia; Henry Scudder and Ray Dennis, both of Marshall, as vice-chairmen.

Belt, current district chairman, will officiate with William Hiatt, Sedalia, retiring Council president, making the induction remarks. Other business will include reports on district progress from the six operating committees.

The meeting will begin with a dessert course.

— Declared that all Jews could not be blamed for the crucifixion of Christ and called on the world's half-billion Roman Catholics to work for better relations with Jews and other non-Christians. It was the first time in its history that the Church voiced such a plea.

— Declared that all men have religious freedom, to act in accordance with their consciences, another move designed to bring Catholics and non-Catholics closer together.

— Outlined guidelines for Catholics on such problems as nuclear war, social justice, love and marriage. It upheld Church teaching against contraception but left the door open to changes in the future.

Five Forest Fires On 4,500 Acres

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP) — Five forest fires covering some 4,500 acres of timberland were brought under control late Tuesday. A forestry official said the fires were the work of arsonists.

Pat Thomas of the U.S. Forestry Service said about 60 fires were set Sunday and Monday in this northwest Arkansas area. The blazes formed into five large forest fires.

The area burned was near Natural Dam, 20 miles north of Fort Smith.

Harassment Equips Men For Combat

BRIDGEPORT, Calif. (AP) — The guard's face twists as he sneers at the American Marine. "You're nothing but a tool being used by superiors who are warmongers sitting back in warm offices. You are nothing!"

The interrogator is applying mental pressure, uncertainty — brainwashing.

The scene, far removed from any battle zone, is the Marine Corps' Survival School — set in chilly, desolate isolation in the Sierra near the California-Nevada border.

For two weeks the sneering guard and his fellows pound U.S. Marines with verbal harassment.

Sgt. Antonio Lopez — the sneering guard — is attempting to teach fellow Marines what to expect should they fall into enemy hands.

To Lopez and the "prisoners" the mock prison camp is no joke. What Lopez teaches them could save their lives — and they are constantly reminded of this.

Thousands of Marines — officers and enlisted men — have trained in the rugged special school, started in 1951 after U.S. servicemen experienced harsh treatment in prisoner of war camps in Korea.

Each week about 80 Marines are put through the rough paces. The school is the only one of its kind in the Marine Corps, but similar to others operated by the Army, Navy and Air Force.

Classes have been accelerated since Americans went to South Viet Nam.

"We have many personnel through here on their way to Viet Nam, including pilots who could crash and be cut off from all their friends," Lopez said.

Sgt. Lopez, a Korean war veteran, says that Marines aren't being trained to be prisoners. They must be able to handle the worst, he said.

"Marines have to be in good shape before they come here," the instructor said. "But after they leave, they could run uphill and fight a bear."

Washington Capsules

WASHINGTON (AP) — As President Johnson continues to work on his new defense budget, the feeling on Capitol Hill is that overwhelming approval will likely be given to whatever amount is proposed to meet the increased needs of the war in Viet Nam.

But a Pentagon plan to cut sharply this nation's long-range bomber fleet by 1971 has met formidable congressional opposition.

VIET NAM: President Johnson, after meeting for more than seven hours Tuesday with Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and Secretary of State Dean Rusk, plans to scrutinize the defense budget again Saturday with the nation's top military men. The Texas White House said the Joint Chiefs of Staff, plus McNamara and Deputy Secretary Cyrus R. Vance, would participate in the Saturday session.

On Capitol Hill, meanwhile, many congressmen expect the administration to ask for substantial supplemental funds for the Viet Nam war in addition to whatever amount is included in the new budget for the year starting next July 1.

Whatever the amount, overwhelming approval is expected both for the supplemental request and the fiscal 1967 defense budget.

BOMBERS: A Pentagon plan to cut back about two-thirds of the nation's long-range bomber fleet by 1971 has met immediate objection from the chairman of the powerful Senate Armed Services Committee, Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga. Russell said, "I am deeply concerned" over reports that Secretary of Defense McNamara has abandoned "the manned strategic bomber."

There are indications the action may be linked to a reported intention to propose an advanced bomber version of the controversial TFX fighter plane.

Era of Cooperation

Religious Leaders Laud Work of Vatican Council

NEW YORK (AP) — Non-Catholic American religious leaders in general lauded the work of the Vatican Ecumenical Council and said today it opens the way for a new era of collaboration among churches.

Many said the council went farther in modifying Roman Catholic policy of long standing than any outsider had thought possible.

Dr. Edwin Tuller, secretary of the American Baptist Convention, said the council "opened opportunities for communication between the Roman Church and the Protestant Church that were never there before."

Dr. Eugene Carson Blake, clerk of the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A., said "the ecumenical movement has been greatly strengthened and we look forward to ever-increasing unity and cooperation."

Evangelist Billy Graham commented: "The council brought out a new understanding and spirit among all Christians, the debates provided a new understanding on the part of Protestants of what the Church of Rome believes, and it provided for a new reformation — or freedom — within the Church of Rome."

R. Nelson Glueck, president of Hebrew Union College in Cincinnati, felt that the council deliberations resulted in "a tremendous forward-going development in religious history."

Dr. Robert Dodds, associate secretary for Christian unity of the National Council of Churches and a guest observer for six weeks of the council's final session, had this to say:

"My strongest impression was that of the new openness of the Catholic Church."

"Together with other observers on the scene I was most impressed by the evidence of spiritual vitality in the Roman Catholic Church and by the promise of a new era of brotherhood and working collaboration among all churches."

Dr. Porter Routh, executive secretary of the Southern Baptist Convention's Executive Committee, said, "We are encouraged with the accomplishments the council made in granting religious liberties and we hope they will follow through with this."

He expressed disappointment, however, that "the council did not take a more definite stand in the abolition of Protestant-Catholic marriage contracts."

Dr. Franklin Clark Fry, president of the Lutheran Church in America, viewed the declaration on religious liberty as the council's "most welcome accomplishment."

"The outstanding virtue," Dr. Fry said, "is recognition that not only Christian individuals but Christian communities exist outside the Roman Catholic Church. This should bring a new, true understanding of the whole Christian family."

Robbery Suspects Captured

HUNTSVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Two armed robbers suspects from Kansas were captured Tuesday after an exchange of shots with peace officers.

The men were taken to city jail at Springdale, Ark., and were to be returned to Huntsville today for questioning about Monday night robberies of a liquor store in Southwest City, Mo., and a grocery in Jay, Oklahoma.

One man said he was Junior D. Mosby, 23, of Garden City, Kan., and said the other man was Raymond A. Mosby, 21.

They were charged with auto theft and assault with intent to kill the officer and state police Lt. Otto Griffin said a warrant charging them with armed robbery had been issued in Oklahoma.

Griffin said Raymond Mosby had a carbine wound and buckshot in one arm but was not seriously hurt.

Griffin said he had questioned the wounded man, but all he would say was "Go to Hell."

Raymond Mosby was treated at a Huntsville hospital after being captured near Arkansas 23, about six miles south of Huntsville and four miles south of where he and a companion first ran into the woods.

The second man raced down a stream bed and was caught about an hour later. A $5 tip to a waitress touched off the Ozark Mountain manhunt. The waitress in a highway cafe near Huntsville told state trooper James Cottrell Tuesday about two men who had inquired about motel accommodations and then left a $5 tip.

Cottrell said such a tip is unusual in Madison County and began checking motels. He spotted a car at the Jan-Ran Motel which fitted a description broadcast by the Oklahoma Highway Patrol.

Two men fled from the rear of the motel and drove away in a telephone company truck. Officers pursued them and the capture came later.

None of his children ever was in trouble with the law, Fierros said. His grandchildren number 56, and he has six great-grandchildren.

Little Ammo For Captured US Weapons

Survey Reveals Cong Sticking To Red-made Guns

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—A striking change in the Communist arms and ammunition picture testifies to the escalation of the war in Viet Nam.

Building up their firepower, Communist forces depend more and more on standardized weapons from Red nations. Captured U.S. arms, ammunition and equipment—once a major factor in guerrilla fighting—are fading into relative insignificance.

U.S. weapons now are often left by the Communists on the battlefield. The Viet Cong used to support themselves with captured equipment.

Captured American arms still play some part. So do arms dating to the days of the French Indochina fighting a dozen years ago. But small-arms ammunition is not interchangeable between weapons of U.S. manufacture and those made in Communist nations. The Communists need a source for ammunition if they are to use U.S. weapons.

There is little evidence of clandestine ammunition traffic between Viet Nam and Western countries. The main source has had to be captured material. Possibly there now is another source: ammunition manufactured for U.S. small arms in North Viet Nam. Competent sources say it is highly unlikely that Red China makes such ammunition.

The Viet Cong use captured weapons when they must, but there is little doubt now that the Communist forces prefer equipment from the Communist bloc countries. One reason is that they may consider some of the bloc weapons to be superior to the equivalent U.S. makes.

Recent reports published in the United States have suggested that much of the ammunition for American weapons still used by Viet Cong units came from allies of the United States through direct or indirect sales.

Pentagon and State Department sources say hard-core Viet Cong and North Vietnamese regulars use Communist-made weapons almost exclusively. For those American weapons still in use, these authorities say, the main source of ammunition is battlefield capture from South Vietnamese units. The Pentagon says it has no indication of any transshipment of U.S. material to the Communists.

An Associated Press survey of Allied capitals found officials skeptical of reports that arms and ammunition made in the United States are diverted to the Viet Cong.

fate of the pilot and his observer was not known.

Some 20 F105 Thunderchief jets hit Communist supply lines near Dien Bien Phu, scene of the great French defeat 11 years ago. In the South, other planes drove off an unknown number of black pajama-clad Viet Cong harassing a government outpost 15 miles northwest of Rach Gia, a town in southwest Viet Nam. Three guerrillas were reported killed.

U.S. military headquarters reported another decline in weekly American casualties with 19 Americans killed, 161 wounded and two missing in action in the seven-day period that ended last Saturday. The figures included the terrorist attack on an enlisted men's billet in Saigon Saturday but not the big battle involving the U.S. 1st Division Sunday.

The truce offer was broadcast by the Viet Cong's clandestine "Liberation radio" on Monday.

There was no reaction yet from U.S. or South Vietnamese military commanders.

The Communists have offered truces before on Tet, the Vietnamese lunar new year, which usually falls in January. But during one new year period the Viet Cong occupied a large strategic valley while government troops were celebrating. It took the Saigon regime two years to regain control of the area.

Last Christmas Eve, Communist terrorists exploded a powerful bomb in a U.S. officers' billet in downtown Saigon, killing two Americans and injuring 81 other persons. The blast in the seven-story Brink Hotel was the worst terrorist attack of the Vietnamese war up to that date.

In August, the Communists called for a cease-fire during a Buddhist holiday but the truce was not generally observed by either side.

Quoting the Central Committee of the National Liberation Front, the Viet Cong's political high command, the Communist broadcast said the Viet Cong "will stop attacks throughout South Viet Nam" from 7 p. m. Christmas Eve until 7 a. m. Christmas Day to enable American troops and Catholic soldiers in the South Vietnamese army to attend Christmas services "and enjoy Christmas on condition that they carry no weapons."

The broadcast also mentioned the Australian and New Zealand contingents.

There are more than a million Catholics in South Viet Nam, many of them refugees from the Communist North. Catholicism is the only major Christian religion in the area formerly ruled by the French.

"If the other side takes advantage of this situation," the broadcast said, "we will be obliged to defend ourselves. In case the U.S. troops try sabotage, offensives or mopping up, we will be obliged to counterattack."

Questions immediately arose on Communist motives for the truce offer. One theory was that the Reds were trying to curry favor with the Vietnamese Catholics, who have traditionally been strongly anti-Communist.

Area Fires

County firemen had two fires on their hands at practically the same time Tuesday between 5 and 5:30 p. m.

The first alarm came at 5:05 p. m. from the Albert Runge farm, north of Georgetown, where a grass and brush fire was burning out of control.

While the Runge fire was being fought, an alarm was received from a farm owned by Frank Maltzberger, Route 1, southwest of Lake Tebo, where a barn was burning, at 5:30 p. m.

Firemen had to return the truck to the fire station to refill on water and gas used at the previous fire before going to the farm on which the James Hill family resides.

When they arrived, the barn was almost a total loss, despite efforts to extinguish the blaze by running a line of hose from a pond on the property. Cause of the barn fire was unknown.

If people consumed as much water as the average plant in proportion to their weight, they would have to drink 12 quarts per day.

Accidents

Garnet Lee Sawin, 40, a Tulsa, Okla. truck driver, sustained a laceration over the left eye at 7:56 a. m. Wednesday in the 300 block of South Osage when he opened the trailer door of his truck and the door came into collision with a passing auto.

Sawin, according to police, had pulled over preparing to back into the loading dock at the Hausam Auto Supply Company. As he opened the door it struck a 1962 Ford, driven south on Osage by Charles R. Siron, 48, Route 4. The Tulsa man was driving a tractor trailer unit owned by the Sun Motor Supply Company of Tulsa.

Police took Sawin to Bothwell Hospital where he was treated and released.

Wayne Sartain, 31, 2422 Colonial Court, was admitted to Bothwell Hospital Wednesday morning after suffering approximately a 20-foot fall on a construction project at North Grand Ave. and relocated Highway 65.

Taken to the hospital in a Gillespie ambulance, Sartain was given emergency treatment by Dr. R. A. Enoch and taken to the hospital's intensive care unit. His injuries were reported as a fractured hip, a fractured left facial bone, a severe concussion and a possible skull fracture.

The mishap occurred at a building being constructed for the Wise Implement Company by Dean Construction Company.

First British Witch Wedding In 200 Years

MANCHESTER, England (AP)—Beneath tonight's full moon, the principals in what they claim is Britain's first witch wedding in 200 years expect to make a public appearance as man and wife.

They are: Pretty Maxine Morris, blonde and 18, who proudly calls herself a witch.

Alexander Sanders, 9, the high priest of three covens, which are assemblies of witches.

Insisting that he's a witch—not a warlock—Sanders said that in old England, witch meant either a male or female. With Paul King, 22, a coven member, officiating, Maxine and Sanders were married Tuesday at the home of another witch.

It was a very witchy wedding. Maxine wore a figure-clinging white silk robe—and said that was all.

Incense burned as the couple stepped into a white rope circle surrounded by gleaming black candles.

They knelt before an altar in the living room. A pair of witches in hooded robes bound Maxine's and Alexander's arms together.

King made small cuts in their arms—to mix their blood. After that the bridegroom slipped a ring on the bride's finger. They were then toasted in red wine.

Call Board On Money Controversy

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate-House Economic Committee summoned the entire seven-member Federal Reserve Board to discuss the board's hike in interest rates.

Chairman Wright Patman, D-Tex., said the hearings would open next Monday.

Patman said committee members with whom he had talked agreed the Federal Reserve action "could have a substantial impact on the health of our economy and upon the formulation of fiscal and other government economic policies in the months ahead."

An administration economist, meanwhile, said higher interest rates might cause some companies to eliminate or reduce marginal investments. He said there is no way to tell how much increased borrowing costs would affect plant or equipment spending since there is no way to tell how far interest rates would rise.

Little immediate effect can be expected, he added, because most financing is planned well ahead of building projects.

Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, in a speech Tuesday before the Institute of Life Insurance in New York, joined President Johnson in regretting that the Federal Reserve decision was made "before it was possible to give full consideration to the January budget decisions and to the economic outlook for private spending in 1966."

The Federal Reserve action comprised two main steps: a raise in the rate on time deposits of more than 30 days from 4½ to 5½ per cent and an increase from 4 to 4½ per cent in the discount rate—the interest charged by the 12 regional Federal Reserve banks on loans to member commercial banks.

In a follow-up action, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp. Tuesday gave member state banks approval to pay the higher rates on time deposits but urged "utmost caution."

De Gaulle Says He Would Be Candidate Again

PARIS (AP)—President Charles de Gaulle told a weekly meeting of the French cabinet today that "naturally" he would be a candidate for a new seven-year term in the run-off presidential election Dec. 19.

De Gaulle's decision was announced by Information Minister Alain Peyrefitte after the Cabinet meeting.

There had been speculation before the first election round last Sunday that De Gaulle might withdraw if he failed to get the 50 per cent of the vote plus one required for election on the first try. De Gaulle got 44.63 per cent, which sent him into a run-off with leftist Francois Mitterrand, the No. 2 man who got 31.71 per cent.

Despite the speculation, informed sources reported Tuesday night that De Gaulle had decided to run.

Mitterrand is supported by the Socialists, the Communists and part of the Radical Socialists. Four other candidates were eliminated in the election Sunday.

The present expectation is that enough moderate and conservative support will switch from the defeated candidates to De Gaulle to put him over in the run-off.

In Budget Request

Administration Expected To Seek Defense Increase

WASHINGTON (AP)—With a mounting feeling in Congress that the Viet Nam war is going to get bigger and more costly, President Johnson seems likely to get overwhelming approval for any defense figure he may propose next month in his new budget.

The President is working on the military budget at his Texas ranch. He said Monday that in aiding the South Vietnamese to resist aggression "we are going to supply whatever men will be needed for that effort."

Even before the new budget goes to Congress, the administration is expected to ask supplemental funds to boost the $1.7 billion already tacked on the current fiscal year's outlays because of mounting war costs.

If the new supplemental request is less than $1 billion, many members of Congress will be surprised.

Whatever budget cutting Congress does next year — and it may not be extensive if the economy continues to roll along in high gear — probably will be carried out on foreign aid and some domestic programs.

More and more, there is a feeling among many Congress members that the Viet Nam struggle is far from its peak. Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee, has said he sees no alternative to a substantial step-up in American participation in the fighting and the broadening of attacks on the Communists.

Like Russell, Sen. John C. Stennis, D-Miss., has called for action to knock out the principal North Viet Nam harbor of Haiphong. As head of the Senate Preparedness subcommittee, he is predicting "hard and bitter and bloody" fighting that may last several years.

Rep. John P. Saylor, R-Pa., who served several weeks in the war area as a naval reservist, says that the war can't be won unless the Navy blockades North Viet Nam shipping and bombs the industrial complex around Hanoi and Haiphong.

President Johnson has limited U.S. bombing targets in an effort to convince the North Vietnamese that the United States doesn't want to destroy their country but only to stop their aggressive action against South Viet Nam.

Many members of Congress believe, however, that this policy of limitation cannot long endure if Hanoi continues its refusal to enter into any meeting for negotiations to end the conflict.

Cong Offers Truce For Christmas Eve

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—The Viet Cong has offered a conditional 12-hour truce on Christmas Eve night, informed sources reported today. The sources said the Viet Cong's "Liberation Radio" broadcast the announcement and a communique by the Viet Cong armed forces command outlining the conditions.

The broadcast said the Viet Cong will "stop attacks throughout South Viet Nam" from 7 p.m. Christmas Eve until 7 a.m. Christmas Day.

It said this would be done "to allow people on the other side to celebrate Christmas in peace." This would apply, the broadcast said, provided the troops carried no weapons and there were "no means" of spying.

It warned, however, that "if the other side takes advantage of this situation, we will be obliged to defend ourselves."

Army Combat Pilots Live It Up for Week

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Sixty battle-weary Army combat pilots will live it up for a week, starting Thursday, after spending the past year in Viet Nam.

They'll have no expenses at the Camelback Inn, a plush Phoenix area winter resort.

The Army is flying the pilots from Viet Nam to San Francisco. Continental Airlines is providing free transportation to Phoenix, where they'll be guests of Jack Stewart, resort owner.

Some of the pilots' wives will join them at the inn.

In extending the invitation, Stewart said he was fed up with draft card burnings and other antiwar protests in the United States.

Hair Could Disrupt School Decorum

BOSTON (AP)—The Massachusetts Supreme Court has ruled that George Leonard Jr.'s hair, grown well over his ears in Beatle style, "could disrupt and impede" school decorum.

Therefore, the court held, school officials have the right to order him to get a normal haircut.

The court acted Tuesday in the case of Leonard, 18, a rock 'n' roll singer who uses the name "Georgie Porgie." He argued that his shaggy mop was an integral part of his musical act.

Leonard was suspended when he wouldn't trim his locks. His parents appealed through the courts.

The Supreme Court said school officials must be free to suspend a student for good reason, otherwise they couldn't hope to cope with the "unpredictable activities of large groups of children."

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Clark Mitze of St. Louis executive director of the Missouri Council on the Arts, said Tuesday night it has spent or committed about $150,000 of its $170,000 appropriation for the year which ends next June 30.

Missouri, New York and California are the only states with such programs, and the Missouri Council did not start operating until Oct. 13.

Unveil New Computers For Politics

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democrats have unveiled a new look in political machines: a humming, light-winking computer that is quickly learning the tricks of the politician's trade.

By the first of the year they plan to have it ready to write up to 1,000 letters an hour — each one personalized — for Democratic congressmen. It can sign them, too.

Later the computer may be used to seek the names of potential Democratic voters who have not registered. Party workers could then encourage them to enroll as voters.

The former Secret Service agent who supervises the computer's operation said it can be programmed to handle a wide assortment of political chores.

"It just allows us to do things that would be impractical any other way," said Jerry Blaine, who supervises the room-size machine and a staff of 15 persons who keep it humming.

Already the machine handles mailing lists, addressing and accounting chores. More than 5 million Democratic names — and a variety of information about the people who bear them — are recorded on its magnetic tape.

A 9 1/2-inch reel of tape will hold 100,000 names; a filing cabinet, 20 million. Also recorded: occupation, age, family, nickname and dozens of other tidbits of information.

Democratic National Committee mailing lists, plus those of about 80 congressmen, have been stored on the computer tapes, Blaine said.

The machine, in the basement of the office building where the party has its national headquarters, is leased for about $5,000 a month. The payroll for its operation totals about $11,000 monthly. Congressmen who use the service pay part of the bill.

Seeking Compulsory Vehicle Inspections

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Compulsory vehicle inspection laws should be enacted and driver licensing procedures should be toughened, the Firestone Tire and Rubber Co. president said today.

Earl B. Hathaway said such action would help cut the growth on our highways are lax laws spoke at a meeting of the International Oil industry's tires, batteries and accessories group here.

Hathaway said studies show 65 per cent of New York State Thruway accidents are caused by driver errors and 15 per cent by vehicle flaws.

"The real cause of accidents on our highways are lax laws which allow incompetent drivers to get a license and allow unsafe cars to cruise on our highways," he said.

Would Ban Some Use Of Confederate Flag

COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP) — A group of South Carolina Sons of Confederate Veterans wants Southern states to ban commercialization or racial use of the Confederate battle flag.

Wade Hampton Camp 273 adopted a resolution asking state legislatures to ban display of the Confederate battle flag except with the United States flag. A spokesman for the group said Ku Klux Klan use of the Stars and Bars tended to make it a symbol of extremism and slights to the flag by integrationists cause trouble.

First white man to see what now is New Mexico was Cabeza de Vaca, who crossed the state in 1536 journeying from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast.

tion totals about $11,000 monthly. Congressmen who use the service pay part of the bill.

SPACE CENTER, HOUSTON — Chris Kraft, a very relaxed flight director, puffs a cigar as he sits at his station in Mission Control Center and directs the most trouble-free Gemini mission to date. As the flight of Gemini nears the beginning of its fifth day in space, no problems have occurred to cause the concern that has accompanied previous Gemini flights. (NASA PHOTO FROM UP)

Women 'Spoof' the Pollsters

Recently 5,000 housewives were asked in a survey about their reactions to the telephone ringing "when you least want it to."

Here are the interesting results:

- Thirty-one per cent, or 1,552 housewives, stated that they can almost always count on the phone to ring when they are in the shower or tub.

- A somewhat smaller number, 1,308 or 26 per cent, claimed that their phones ring whenever they are perched on a ladder or chair trying to reach the top of a closet or cupboard.

- For 21 per cent, the middle of an interesting television program is the magic time when their phones are sure to ring.

- Another 809 homemakers, or about 16 per cent, reported that being up to the elbows in dishwasher is the most reliable telephone activating factor.

- Finally, 6 per cent said that concentrating hard on an interesting bridge hand is the best way to make the phone ring.

How many housewives answered the question with tongue in cheek about the telephone ringing "when they least wanted it too?"

The survey was conducted by an automated telephone answering service. One wonders how many housewives would subscribe to installation of such a device to lighten her "burden" of answering the telephone. Male observations on the domestic front indicate that the average woman would have a nervous breakdown if she sacrificed the privilege of running to the 'phone every time it pealed. Judging from the speed they demonstrate getting to the talk box before the other end hangs up, most housewives are qualified to enter a 100-yard dash in track meet competition.

Husbands are agreed that there is something contradictory about women admitting to a pollster that there ever was a time when "she least wanted to answer a telephone."

Looking Backward

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Charles W. Green, secretary of the Missouri State Fair, was elected president of the International Association of Fairs and Expositions at the annual meeting in Chicago which is comprised of 75 leading expositions in the United States and Canada. Mr. Green has been secretary-manager of the Missouri fair for eight years.

FORTY YEARS AGO

Members of the local Typographical Union No. 206 elected the following officers for 1926: President, Henry Shepherd; Vice-President, Ray Stivers; Secretary-Treasurer, D. O. Rochford; Sergeant-at-arms, Emmet Sullivan.

Pulling Away

Texans will not welcome the news, but the fact is that Alaska is now bigger than it was when it entered the Union.

The enlargement isn't much, however—only 10 acres. It came about as a by-product of the federal reconstruction program following the earthquake that rocked the state on March 27, 1964.

Army engineers, dredging the harbor at Cordova, whose floor had been lifted up by the quake, were faced with the problem of what to do with all the mud. Rather than dump it in deep water, they decided to use it for fill.

The result was 10 acres of flat land, a rarity in that mountainous neighborhood, which the city of Cordova allotted for business and industrial use. Two businesses have already located there, a shop and a tavern.

Almanacs, atlases, encyclopedias — and Texans — take note. The area of Alaska should be changed from 375,296,000 to 375,296,010 acres. Little Texas remains at 171,096,960 acres.

Washington Merry-Go-Round

LBJ Will Curtail Social Season

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — President Johnson is almost certain to curtail the White House social season when he returns to Washington after Christmas.

With casualties in Viet Nam running high, the President doesn't believe it's a good idea to put the White House in the position of giving gay parties.

The dinner for Princess Margaret had been scheduled weeks in advance, and no one knew that the Viet Nam fighting was going to be disastrous that week. Nevertheless some people got a sour reaction from the festivities.

The impression has prevailed in Washington social circles that the Johnsons have been trying to emulate the Kennedy's society-wise. Jackie Kennedy had a lot of New York friends whom she imported for her gayest parties, and there were several occasions when they danced the twist all night. Breakfast was served about 5 a.m.

The Johnsons have not imported New York's elite society nor have they danced all night. A good many of the parties have entertained Congress and were highly successful as evidenced by the record number of bills passed by the President at the last session.

But with coffins and hospital planes now coming back from Saigon, White House dinners will be on a much more modest scale and dancing will probably be cut out entirely.

Next Defense Chief

If and when Secretary of Defense McNamara moves over to the White House to become Assistant President, replacing George Bundy, the man who will replace him in the Pentagon is Cyrus R. Vance, now Deputy Secretary of Defense.

Vance is one of "Lyndon's boys," trained in the Senate when LBJ was chairman of the Armed Services Special Preparedness Committee, formed after the first Russian

Guest Editorials

GOSHEN (Ind.) NEWS: Partnership. — President Johnson made history by making Panama a partner in the operation of the Panama Canal.

The "gift" to Panama, and that's about all you can call it, is little more than an effort at appeasement for Panamanians who have been telling us to "go home" for a long time.

If it is right to give Panama half or more of the United States' interest in the canal, it may not be too presumptuous to believe that eventually Mr. Johnson may propose to give the Statue of Liberty back to the French just to keep Charles de Gaulle in a more favorable mood toward his old World War ally.

Or how about giving the Soviet Union a share of Cape Kennedy in the hope that maybe the Russians would then join us in a common effort to put a man on the moon?

We trust the President has no immediate plans for disposing of the nation's interest in Yellowstone National Park, Fort Knox or the White House.

Value of Dissenters

Here's an item you might want to show the boss if you've been rubbing edges with him lately.

According to Prof. Paul Pigors of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, no company is complete without its quota of non-conformists and dissenters and generally unreasonable people.

"A reasonable man rocks no boats," he says. "He is content to go along with things as they exist. But the unreasonable man is a dissatisfied worker who will come up with new ideas."

But don't expect it to have too much effect on the boss. How do you think he got where he is today? By being reasonable?

Low shoes are called "oxfords" because they first were made and worn at Oxford, England.

The World Today

Political Leaders Outlive Usefulness

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst WASHINGTON (AP) — What happens to the "grand old man" is one of the differences between a democratic society and a dictatorship of left or right. In a democratic society he generally has a bumpy time.

Last Sunday's blow to French President Charles de Gaulle's pride was just the latest example. His people, failing to give him enough votes to re-elect him, forced him into a run-off election later this month.

But in other democracies great postwar leaders were nudged hard enough to make them realize they had outlived their political usefulness.

The British did it to their beloved Sir Winston Churchill in 1955 when he was 80 and too feeble to do his job. The men closest to him urged him to quit as prime minister, and he did, although he lived 10 years after that.

As chancellor of West Germany for 14 years, Konrad Adenauer had led his country from the ruins of war to bulging prosperity. His own party forced him out in 1963 when he was 87.

There's no danger of an old-timer freezing in his job in this country with its elections every four years and a two-term limit on the presidency.

In India one of the most important leaders of the 20th century seemed bound to stay in the saddle indefinitely, although India was a democracy, because no one like him was in sight and he had trained no one.

This was Jawaharlal Nehru, who had been prime minister since India got its independence from Britain in 1947. But he died in 1964 at 74.

It was the death of his great friend, the man who had become India's patron saint, Mohandas Gandhi, which illustrated something else about democratic societies.

In them it seems easier for violent death to remove a leader, no matter how popular he is, while he is out moving among the public, than it is in a dictatorship.

This is what happened to Gandhi, shot to death in 1948 by a Hindu extremist who wanted no part of brotherly relations with the Moslems. Gandhi, then 78, had just finished a fast intended to soften Hindu-Muslim enmity.

The assassination of President John F. Kennedy is a prime example, too.

But the long life and unchallenged tenure of the dictators — or the leaders of a dictatorial regime of left or right — has plenty of examples.

Joseph Stalin, one of the monsters of history, died in 1953 at 73 after 23 years as the iron boss of Russia.

Two Communists, Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia, now 73, and Red China's Mao Tze-tung, 72, still hold unchallenged leadership after decades of it. The picture is the same on the far right.

In Spain Francisco Franco, 73, and in Portugal, Antonio Salazar, 76, are undisturbed dictators, Franco since 1937, Salazar since 1932.

On Formosa Chiang Kai-shek retains control of the Nationalist Chinese, a society which can hardly be called democratic. He had been the decisive force on the mainland from the 1920s until 1949 when the Reds drove him to Formosa. There he stayed in charge as before, but on a smaller scale.

THE DOCTOR SAYS

Progress Is Made In Treating Blood Clots

By Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

The clotting of your blood is what keeps you from bleeding to death when a blood vessel is cut or broken. Anything that damages the inner lining of your blood vessels can trigger the process.

Thus, although clotting is a lifesaving mechanism, it can play havoc under certain abnormal conditions.

Infections, such as rheumatic fever, that attack the inner lining of the heart itself, aneurysm (abnormal widening of a segment of an artery), and hardening of the arteries can all damage these vessels and start the formation of a clot, even when there is no cut or break.

This type of clot formation is called "thrombosis." Such a clot usually adheres loosely to the vessel wall, but sooner or later it is apt to break loose. It then becomes a foreign body in your circulation.

As it travels down an artery, the channels through which it passes become progressively narrower until it comes to a point where it can proceed no further. Such a clot is called an "embolus."

There is a sudden cutting off of the blood flow below the clot but, if the vessel involved was small, collateral arteries usually continue to supply the area.

If, as sometimes happens, a large clot obstructs a large artery a great deal of tissue damage can occur before the small collateral vessels can enlarge and take over the added work load.

When this occurs in an artery in the thigh, pain in the leg develops and no pulse will be felt in the leg.

Unless such an event is treated as an emergency, gangrene will set in and the foot or perhaps most of the leg will be lost.

Surgeons have learned a lot about how to treat these emergencies. They used to think that it was useless to try to think move a clot if 12 hours had elapsed since it broke away and found a new home.

Although it is true that the sooner the operation is performed the better the results, some legs have been saved even after a week has elapsed.

Various drugs have been used in an effort to dissolve these clots, but none have been successful. After the operation, however, it is customary to give anticoagulants to prevent any extension of the abnormal clotting.

Q — Some folk say brown sugar isn't as fattening as white sugar. Is this so?

A — Brown sugar is cane or beet sugar that has not been as extensively refined as white sugar. From a nutritional standpoint, there is no significant difference.

his high cards in spades and hearts, there will be no squeeze. West will only be forced to make two discards."

Jim: "Hence the submarine play. South leads out his deuce of spades. East wins, and now the squeeze must work. It does not matter what East returns. South takes his three hearts and two high spades and on the last trick, poor West must unguard either the jack of clubs or jack of diamonds."

Political campaign buttons were used as early as the 4th century B. C., during the reign of Alexander the Great.

LEGENDS OF CHRISTMAS

One legend, which the guns of the Kremlin cannot erase, concerns a Russian grandmother, Babushka.

She was a tired, lonely old woman who lived on the cold steppes with no friends nearby.

One day three bejeweled kings, with their servants and slaves, knocked at Babushka's door.

DEAR POLL — We keep a separate bank for unexpected expenses. This money is ready if Johnny breaks his glasses or Mary loses her pen. Each member of the family contributes to the bank according to salary or allowance and if the money grows beyond a certain amount the extra is used for a family treat. This makes children as well as adults more careful with their possessions. The children tend to remind one another, so the fund does not have to be used for avoidable losses and there is more chance for a treat.—MRS. J. M.

DEAR POLLY — When my husband and I exchanged cars there was confusion as to which key was which. He has a yellow key and mine is blue. I painted the top of each car key with color to match the car to avoid confusion.—MRS. S.S.

DEAR POLLY — The time is here for washing curtains and draperies so they are spotless for the holidays. For easy ironing use a folding picnic table covered with two double blankets. I lay the curtains flat, attach an extension cord and walk around the table and iron without moving the curtains. They come off straight and smooth.—MRS. A. G.

GIRLS — I would cover the blankets with a sheet so there would be no danger of scorching good blankets. Accidents can happen no matter how careful we may be.—POLLY

DEAR POLLY — The season is here when many of us are spraying pine cones, seed pods and the like with gold paint. Sometimes the result seems dull unless a number of coats are used. I have found it helpful to first give such material a light coat of white and then fewer coats of gold are necessary to get a bright color.—MRS. G. E. M.

Q — I'm still being made to pay 10 per cent tax on my phone bill. I thought this had been eliminated.

A — The telephone tax is being reduced in stages starting next Jan. 1. Then it drops from 10 per cent to 3 per cent. In 1967 and 1968, the tax drops another percentage point each year until it is entirely eliminated in 1969.

Q — I quit my summer job when school started this fall. When is my employer supposed to give me my W-2 Form?

A — Employers are required to provide W-2 Forms not later than Jan. 31 of the following year. However, if an employment is terminated before the close of the year, W-2 Forms must be supplied within 30 days of the last pay day. You should keep the W-2 and attach it to your 1965 tax return.

Q — Do you plan to offer the Teaching Taxes program to schools again this year?

A — Yes, we do. Notices on the program are sent out each Fall to junior and senior high schools as well as some business schools and colleges. Materials for the program are sent to the schools requesting them soon after the first of the year.

Last year an estimated 25,000 schools participated in the program designed to help youngsters fill out Federal income tax forms. Through the program, 3½ million student workbooks and 85,000 teacher's kits were distributed.

New Stage In Viet Nam Budget Plan

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP)—President Johnson's latest search for ways to provide more men, equipment and money for the war in Viet Nam will reach a new stage Saturday with the Joint Chiefs of Staff given a say-so in vital budget decisions.

Johnson conferred for more than seven hours at his ranch home Tuesday with Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and Secretary of State Dean Rusk.

Among other things, the Texas White House said, the officials "studied various budgetary matters affecting the national security preliminary to a session the President will have Saturday morning on the defense budget" with the Joint Chiefs, McNamara and Deputy Secretary of Defense Cyrus R. Vance.

This meeting presumably will give the Pentagon's uniformed chiefs a chance to give Johnson their views on the manpower, weapons and money they regard as essential.

Traditionally, the uniformed services seek more funds and larger programs than the President finally approves. The budgetary pinch on some programs may be particularly acute this year because of Johnson's desire to offset, as much as possible, the mounting cost of operations in Viet Nam.

The President's ranch meeting with Rusk and McNamara was described as intensive. In addition to a preliminary discussion of the defense budget that will go to Congress next month, Johnson got a firsthand report from McNamara "on the status of operations in South Viet Nam."

McNamara spent 28 hours in Saigon last week, getting briefed by top officials on the scene.

Sitting in on the session were McGeorge Bundy, Johnson's special assistant for national security affairs, and Robert Komer, Bundy's deputy.

Play Sweet Springs Friday

Statistics Show Stronger Gremlin Crew This Season

Statistically, the Sedalia Sacred Heart Gremlins appear ready to take on the tough Sweet Springs Greyhounds, but behind the statistics remain some problems that head coach James Gladbach would like to be rid of.

To date, the Gremlins hold a 5-6 record, which in some areas may be considered unimpressive. One of those losses, however, came from Jefferson City Helias (78-72) which is listed as Class I on the basis of student enrollment.

Another of the defeats came from the Warsaw Wildcats, current leaders in the PBCAA with a 9-1 record, and the Grems lost that one by only five points. The over-all indication is that Sacred Heart has played against some rough opponents this season, and has, in some cases, been out of its depth.

Individually, Mike Maple, a 5-9 senior guard, is leading the Gremlins in total points scored and in the number of assists this season. In the 12 games he has played, Maple has scored 193 points for a 16.1 average. Breaking that down, the figures show that he has been hitting on 47.3 of his field goal attempts and on 66.1 per cent of his foul shots.

Ron Kruse, a 6-4 senior center, and tallest man on the Sacred Heart crew, has garnered 183 rebounds in 12 games for an average of 15.2 a game. He's just behind Maple in points scored with 179 for a 14.9 per game average, on 69 of 119 field goal attempts and 41 out of 56 free throws completed.

Maple and Kruse, according to the statistics, top the Gremlin line-up, but many of the others on the squad pave the way for those two to do their work.

Compared to last season, the team effort the Gremlins have put out this year is a phenomenon onto itself. Last year, which would in reality, best be forgotten, the Gremlins hardly ever got off the ground. But not so this year. Though they're one under in the won-loss column, the Grems are showing more promise this year than they have in the last two.

But Gladbach is a realist. For the benefit of this report, he outlined three areas in which he feels the Grems need definite improvement.

"1. Fouls — Team average is 16.6 and 3.3 per man. This is too high. We should be averaging less than 2.5 per man and

WESTBURY, N. Y. (AP)—Su Mac Lad, greatest money winning harness horse of all time, retired from racing in special ceremonies at the winners' circle Tuesday night at Roosevelt Raceway, scene of some of his greatest triumphs.

The 11-year-old trotting gelding was driven once around the track to the cheers of 14,017 fans and then stripped of his racing gear.

His shoes were removed and distributed to his owner, Irving Berkemeyer of New Milford, N. Y.; Alvin Weil, president of Roosevelt Raceway; Ed Binneweg, representing the Trotting Hall of Fame at Goshen, N.Y., and to his driver-trainer, Stanley Dancer of New Egypt, N.J.

Nebraska Is New Threat In Big 8

By JIM VAN VALKENBURG Associated Press Sports Writer
"We hope to have an improved year at Nebraska, said Coach Joe Cipriano before the season. "This is the quickest team we've had and they are a lot better shooters because of our sophomores."

It's time to start taking him very seriously, in Big Eight basketball.

Nebraska whipped Oregon State 76-63 in its home opener at Lincoln Tuesday night for a 2-0 record. The Huskers clipped Wisconsin 101-88 at Madison last week.

Tom Baack, a 6-foot-5 sophomore, is averaging 18.5 points a game and Stuart Lantz, a 6-3 rookie, is at 12.0. Veteran Grant Simmons has a 20.5 mark.

Cipriano's club combined a full-court press with a fast break for a 19-7 spurt in the last 10 minutes of the first half.

Nebraska, Colorado and Kansas are the Big Eight's unbeaten trio.

Kansas, ranked no. 7 nationally, made it 3-0 by smashing New Mexico State 102-51 at Lawrence. It tied the school scoring mark set by Wilt Chamberlain and Co. in 1958, in a 102-46 victory over Nebraska with Wilt getting 46.

The Jayhawk starting lineup played only 20 minutes and 12.5 for the team. We will have to reduce this.

"2. Free throws — We are shooting 55.6 per cent as a team. This should be about 67 per cent. We have lost two games where we scored more field goals than our opponents, but lost on free throws. Ron Kruse is leading the team with 73.2 percentage.

"3. Defense — We will have to get more aggressive on defense, especially our substitutes. Now our opponents are averaging 63.5 points per game. This is too many. Although, our opponents after Christmas may not have the scoring punch that some of these teams have had early in the season."

This last may be speculation, and could work both ways. In any event, the weaknesses Gladbach outlined are getting attention and can be remedied.

For the season, Sacred Heart's opponents have scored 763 points against them, while the Grems drove home 731. The averages are 60.9 per game for the Grems and 63.5 for the opponents. The gap isn't too wide to overcome.

Knob Noster Wins Over Greyhounds

The Knob Noster Panthers, relying on first and third quarter scoring drives, outlasted the strong Sweet Springs Greyhounds, 58-50, in a non-league basketball meeting at Knob Noster Tuesday night.

The victory set Knob Noster's record at 1-3 for the season.

The Panthers opened the game with 18 points in the first quarter, slipped back to nine in the second and then found the range again in the third quarter for 17 points in that period.

Larry Ficken's 20 points and Phil Kuhlman's 13 rebounds saved the day for the Panthers. Top gun for Sweet Springs was Rob Brown with 19 points on nine field goals and one free throw.

Sweet Springs is next slated to see action in Sedalia against the Sacred Heart Gremlins, while the Panthers take on Clinton in Knob Noster in a conference game the same night.

B-team play saw Knob Noster out Sweet Springs 35-21 with John Rehkop doing the honors with ten points. High for Sweet Springs was Clark with eight.

Score by quarters:
Knob Noster 18 9 17 14—58
Sweet Springs 11 12 8 19—50

Individual scoring: Knob Noster — Bob Bell, 6-1-13; Phil Kuhlman, 4-1-9; Larry Ficken, 8-4-20; Ron Rose, 3-0-6; Scott Taveau, 2-4-8; Joe Shelby, 1-0-2. Sweet Springs — Warren Sims, 5-0-10; Bob Brown, 9-1-19; Greg Fisher, 4-4-12; Ricky Rennison, 1-3-5; Randy Fisher, 1-2-4.

scored 65. Tall Walt Wesley had 11, 16 under his average. Ron Franz led with 19.

The Big Eight had to settle for a split for the night, however, for a 10-10 season mark against a tough intersectional schedule Oklahoma was belted 97-78 at southern Methodist and Oklahoma State lost an 11-point lead and the game 55-52 at Arkansas.

All league teams are idle tonight. Arizona State plays at OSU Thursday night.

Shane And Henning Win Event

The wrestling team of Lee "Bulldog" Henning and Bobby Shane emerged winners over Bob Brown and The Viking Tuesday night, taking the two final falls after a "roughhouse" affair in the ring. It all ended with referee Richard Moody getting ruffed up and challenging Brown to a match, which will be what the fans believe more than he has asked for.

Henning outlasted The Viking with his jabbing thumb and using a back breaker dropped the big blond to the mat for the first fall in seven minutes and 15 seconds. In the second fall, knee drops and press won for Brown over Henning. Then the third period rolled around Brown had pushed the referee, Moody saw his chance as Shane bent down behind Brown and he shoved Brown over Shane's back, who immediately pressed him and won the fall in six minutes flat.

Henning and The Viking met in the opening event on the card and went the full 15 minutes time limit to a draw.

A special event between Bobby Shane and Bob Brown, 20 minutes, one-fall came to a conclusion after 16 minutes when Brown got a reverse headlock on Shane and dropped him to the mat for the fall.

Betty Niccoli, Kansas City, fell victim to Jean Antoine, New Orleans, in a fast flying event. Antoine won the first fall in 13 minutes using a series of body slams and press. The second fall was won by Niccoli in 11 minutes and 15 seconds using a series of knee drops and press. Flying into her opponent for the third fall Antoine quickly used a series of drop kicks followed by a press to win in two minutes and 50 seconds.

The final wrestling show for 1965 will be held next Tuesday night at Convention Hall with the card to be announced later in the week.

Smithton Prepares For Warsaw

For the Smithton Tigers, who defeated Stover's Bulldogs 76-60 Tuesday night in a non-league battle, the taste of victory may be short-lived. The Tigers will go against the awesome Warsaw Wildcats this Friday in a conference battle.

In Tuesday's encounter, the Tigers had to scramble for their victory, trailing by two points in the first quarter, before taking the lead at the half.

A big 21-point rally in the third quarter, padded by 24 more in the final, saved the day. Stover's strongest effort of the game netted 23 points on the scoreboard in the fourth quarter.

Dave Grupe spearheaded the Smithton attack with 23 points, gained on 11 field goals and a charity toss. Tops for Stover were Ted Koester with 12 and Jim Swartz with 11 points.

B-team play witnessed another Smithton victory, 49-36, with Del Bultemeier leading the way with 13 points. Top gun for Stover was Viebrock with 14, good for game scoring honors.

Score by quarters:
Smithton 12 18 21 24—75
Stover 14 14 9 23—60

Individual scoring: Smithton — Dave Grupe, 11-1-23; Mike Turner, 7-3-17; Garry Ackerman, 2-0-4; Bill Crawford, 0-2-2; Don Payne, 5-2-12; Rodney Thomas, 2-2-6; Mickey Selken, 4-3-11. Stover — Ted Koester, 3-6-12; Earl Wilson, 1-0-2; Jim Swartz, 2-7-11; Merl Wilson, 3-1-7; Don Shackelford, 4-0-8; Steve Rowland, 4-0-8; Ed Edding, 2-4-8; John Taylor, 0-2-2; Doug Kroeschen, 0-2-2.

Bengals Put 3-1 Record On The Line

Sedalia's Smith-Cotton Tigers put their 3-1 season record on the line this Friday when they host Kansas City Manual on the local hardwoods in their fifth outing of the season.

The Bengals, who trounced California's Pintos 52-44 last Friday, can't expect things to be quite as easy this time. Though no statistics on Manual are available, the S-C coaching staff, headed by Earl Finley, expects the metropolitan club to offer the Bengals a real test.

Manual is noted primarily for its speed and jumping ability. In the latter category, which includes rebounds as well as tip-offs, the Bengals are decidedly weak.

The Tigers have been put through their paces this week to strengthen that weak link in their armor. Finley is concentrating heavily on rebounding and emphasized that the Tigers might be hard-pressed to contain the high speed attack of the Kansas City crew.

Probable S-C starters for the Friday game will be Larry Bell, Fred Strickert, James Whitney, Charles Norris, Russ Cusick and Dave Rotermund.

In last Friday's contest, Whitney hit for nine field goals and two charity tosses to pace the Tigers with 20 points. Cusick came through with nine tallies and Norris collected eight to round things out.

The Bengals, after leading by a narrow four-point margin at the half, began to control the boards in the second half and played against California and virtually coasted to the victory in the fourth quarter.

The varsity contest, which gets underway at 8 p.m., will be preceded by a B-team game. S-C's B-team lost to California, 33-29, last week, but Coach Paul Schwartz expects his squad to put up stiffer opposition this week.

Chualo Takes Aim At British Title

LONDON — (AP)—Canadian heavyweight George Chualo, who failed in his bid to win the World Boxing Association heavyweight crown from Ernie Terrell last month, is after Henry Cooper's British Empire title.

Chualo outpointed Joe Byrnes, former British Empire champion from Jamaica, in a 10-round Tuesday night. The Canadian weighed 207, Byrnes 209½.

Irving Ungerman, Chualo's manager, said the Canadian champ would stay in England for awhile.

Boonville Defeats California

The season hasn't improved much for the California Pintos, suffering now after graduation took its top men last year. California's latest defeat came from Boonville, 90-47, at California Tuesday night in a non-league cage encounter, bringing their record to 2-5.

Boonville outpaced California by three points in the first quarter, but then a 27-point blast in the second gave the winners a 40-20 lead at the half.

From that point on, it was easy sailing for the Boonville quintet, which was paced by Charles Elbert's 21 points. Top performer for California was Jim Lawson, who hit the bucket with nine field goals and one charity toss for 19 points.

In B-team action California ousted Boonville 40-33 with John Hill's 12 points leading the way. Herb Blank led the losers' drive with 11 tallies.

The Pintos, who count the Smith-Cotton Tigers among their conquerors, open their 1965-66 Tri-County Conference season against Iberia Friday night at Iberia.

Score by quarters:
California 10 10 17 10—47
Boonville 13 17 12 32—90

'Cats, Mustangs Claim Victories

The Northwest Mustangs and Warsaw Wildcats came through as expected Tuesday night, both registering victories on their own courts, to heighten the pace in the race for top honors in area cage standings.

The Mustangs drummed Malta Bend 93-46 while the Wildcats obliterated Wheatland's Mules 86-43. Both of the winners head into conference action this Friday, with the league-leading Mustangs putting a 2-0 record on the line against Cole Camp, while Warsaw, 0-1, goes against Smithton. Warsaw's loss in conference play came from Northwest.

NORTHWEST GAME

The Mustangs opened the game in standard enough fashion Tuesday night, but then turned the ball-game into an almost fantastic scoring exhibition by whipping 37 points through the basket in the second quarter.

Holding Malta Bend to seven and 11 in the first half, the Mustangs took a comfortable 55-18 lead into the second half and coasted the rest of the way. Malta Bend's worst threat of the game came in the third quarter, when they scored 18 points, but it was far short of the needed total to displace Northwest.

Gary Brownfield, star of previous Northwest battles, spearheaded Tuesday's attack with 14 field goals and five free throws for 33 points, tops of the game. Fred Kraft padded that effort with 20 points of his own. Tops for Malta Bend were P. Yates, Wade and Duval with 11 each.

B-team action saw Northwest, sparked by Larry Brownfield's 18 points and Pat Woods' 14, demolish Malta Bend 81-25. High for the losers was Thompson with seven.

Score by quarters:

WARSAW GAME

It was pretty much the same story on the Warsaw hardwoods. The Wildcats, after piling up 43-35 lead at the half, differed slightly by never letting off pressure on Wheatland.

The Mules, faced by a big enough handicap at half-time, were held to nine points in the third quarter, giving Warsaw the extra points needed to insure victory.

Bob Barnes came through for Warsaw again Tuesday night, adding another 30-point score to his already glittering record. He hit for 12 field goals and six charity tosses. Top gun for Wheatland was Turner, with seven field goals and two free throws for 16.

Warsaw's B-team added to the varsity's laurels by whipping Wheatland 48-23 with Jack Kellner's 11 points as the big factor. Top gun for Wheatland was G. Box with seven.

Elliott Owner Of Big 8 Title

By JIM VAN VALKENBURG
Associated Press Staff Writer

Oklahoma State's Larry Elliott was the only one of six defending statistical champions who repeated in Big Eight football this fall. In the process, Elliott became the first man in league history to gain more than 2,000 yards in kick returns.

Elliott edged Ossie Cain of Kansas State 455 to 454 in kick-off returns, giving the 5-foot-7, 155-pound senior a career total of 2,029 yards in kick and punt returns. He had 1,408 in kick-off returns alone, another conference record.

Players from six different schools won the eight statistical crowns this season. Iowa State's Tim Van Galder led in passing with 1,418 yards and in total offense with 1,566 and his favorite target, Eppie Barney, was the pass receiving titlist with 495 yards on 35 catches.

Missouri's Charlie Brown edged Walt Garrison of Oklahoma State for the rushing title, 937 to 924. He is Missouri's first rushing champ since Bob Steuber in 1942.

Frank Rogers of Colorado, a 13-for-18 field goal kicker, led conference scorers with 61 points. Nebraska's Larry Wacholtz with 452 yards in 31 returns was the punt runback leader. Bill Lynch of Kansas was the punting champ, 41.54 to 41.50 over OSU's Danny Lawson.

Colorado's Bernie McCall was the runner-up in passing with 1,175 yards and in total offense at 1,428. Next in total offense were Gary Lane of Missouri with 992, and Fred Duda of Nebraska at 966, both quarterbacks.

Lane was responsible for the most touchdowns in the league with 13. He scored nine, threw for four TDs.

Little Charles Durkee, whose field goal gave OSU a 17-16 win over Oklahoma, tied Rogers for the league record in career field goals at 16 and finished with 111 career points by kicking alone, a record.

Nebraska used the best balanced offense in Big Eight history to win the league total offense crown while keeping the national rushing crown in the league.

It's a tribute to the Huskers that they were the first team in league history to go over 400 in total offense without getting at least 300 on the ground. The Big Eight remained the national rushing capital as Nebraska averaged 290. They added 114 by air for a 404 total.

More passes were thrown and more completed for more yards by Big Eight teams than any season in league history. The passing yardage total for the league of 7,938 was almost 1,000 more than the old mark.

Iowa State led in pass defense at 82.1 and pass offense, 141.8. Nebraska was on top in rushing defense at 109.2 and total defense with 202.7.

World News Capsules

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS, Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield and four other sen-tors are in seclusion in Hong Kong drafting a report to President Johnson on the prospects of peace in Viet Nam.

They also may be waiting to confer with a French envoy who reportedly is en route to Hong Kong from Red China after visiting North Viet Nam.

Although a U.S. consulate source insisted Mansfield and his group had no plans to meet any French official, other sources here said reports from Washington and Paris indicated Jean Chauvel, former French ambassador to London, was on his way here after a special mission to Peking and Hanoi on behalf of President Charles de Gaulle.

MEXICO CITY (AP) — A former aide to Leon Trotsky claims that Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro liquidated his minister of industries, Ernesto (Che) Guevara, because Guevara advocated adherence to Peking.

Felipe Alvahuante implied the order to kill Guevara came directly from Moscow. Trotsky, his former boss who broke with Stalin, was killed by Soviet-sponsored assassin in Mexico in 1940.

STOCKHOLM (AP) — Russian Author Mikhail Sholokhov arrived by boat today to collect the 1965 Nobel Prize for literature on Dec. 10.

The Royal Swedish Academy of Letters awarded him the prize of $55,000 for his novel "And Quiet Flows the Don".

BAMBOO PREFERRED—Steel may be the material for heavy-duty construction in the West, but in the Orient the ancient bamboo is still preferred even for many modern tasks. This new building rising in Hong Kong is festooned with scaffolding built completely of bamboo, instead of the maze of steel pipes usual in the West. Experience has shown that bamboo scaffolding, constructed without nails or metal support, is actually stronger and more stable than similar steel structures.

By DON CARSON

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court is taking a new look at the thin line which separates censorship and freedom of expression.

The Federal Aviation Agency is going to equip the nation's airports with a new radar technique.

NEW LOOK. In 1957, the Supreme Court said the best obscenity test for literature is "whether to the average person, applying contemporary standards, the dominant theme of the material taken as a whole appeals to prurient interest."

But what defines the "average person?" And what is "prurient interest?"

Now, eight years later, the high court is addressing itself to the obscene literature question again.

Arguments in three appeals of lower-court convictions are being heard.

NEW RADAR. The FAA has developed a three-dimension radar technique designed for high-altitude traffic control.

Dubbed alpha-numerics, it electronically tags approaching aircraft on the control tower's radar. Luminous letters tell the plane's identification, altitude and location.

Thus, numerous voice contacts, including perhaps faulty altitude readings, are eliminated.

The FAA plans to install alpha-numerics at all major airports within five years. The overall cost will be about $250 million.

Could this method have averted last Saturday's collision of two airliners over New York's Westchester County?

... Generally speaking this is the type accident the system is designed to avoid."

Idaho Gov. Robert E. Smylie says he'll ask next week's session of the Republican Coordinating Committee to censure the John Birch Society. The Air Force has announced a successful test of its newest weapons system, the Minuteman II intercontinental ballistic missile.

People In The News

EL DORADO, Ark. (AP)—Mrs. Donna Axum Buckley of El Dorado, Miss. America of 1964, has filed suit for divorce from her husband, Michael Allen Buckley, of Bloomington, Ill.

Mrs. Buckley, who charges personal indignities, asked for custody of "a minor child" with visitation rights for her husband.

She and Buckley were married in Pine Bluff, Ark., in December 1964 when both were students at the University of Arkansas.

LONDON (AP)—Queen Mother Elizabeth is under a doctor's care for laryngitis.

The queen mother, 65, recovered from a bout of influenza only a week ago.

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Singer Helen O'Connell's marriage to musician Robert Pares in Tijuana last Dec. 14 has been annulled.

Superior Judge Eugene E. Sax declared the marriage void when he found they had not complied with Mexican marriage laws. Pares did not oppose the annulment.

She resumed her former name of Chamales. She is the widow of novelist Thomas Chamales.

A royal spokesman said she had a temperature, but said the attack was mild.

Plane Power From Chain Saw Motors

By KEITH GRIFFIS
Carthage Press
Written for the AP

CARTHAGE, Mo. (AP)—Wilbur Staib of Diamond, Mo., calls his creation an "airy plane" and that's what it is.

The little open-air plane, tested recently at the Carthage Municipal Airport, is similar in design and appearance to the original Wright brothers craft of the early 1900's.

But it isn't the first one built by the 51-year-old Staib, a World War II pilot instructor. He has built four small planes including one which held the title of the world's smallest plane until a rival built and flew one just a bit smaller.

Staib, who by day helps in building rocket engines at Rocketdyne in Neosho, constructed his new "airy plane" during a three to four month period last winter, doing most of the work in the garage at his home. Scrap aviation tubing was used for the framework, regulation fabric for the wing covering and aviation cables for the controls. But there the similarity to a factory made plane stops. One gallon paint thinner cans were used for the gas tanks; the wheels are similar to those used on loading dollies; the propellers are specially made and the power comes from a pair of chain saw motors delivering only ten horsepower each.

Staib is joined in his enthusiasm for his experimental craft by his wife, Irene. While she isn't a pilot herself, she accompanies him on his trial flights and offers pre-and post-flight suggestions and observations.

After a few yanks on the starter cables, much like starting a power lawn mower, the engines snap to life and Staib taxis down the runway for a take-off at about 50 miles an hour.

The plane climbs to about 40 feet, which is the highest yet attempted during the testing of the plane, and levels off for a short flight before touching down at the far end of the runway.

Staib says the maneuverability is good and prospects for more extended flights excellent, but first a few improvements will be made.

After the improvements and tests are completed, he hopes to develop plans and possibly kits which would permit home construction by others interested in a low-cost flying machine.

An interesting comparison is made by noting the likeness of the Staib craft and the Wright brothers' first plane which launched the aviation era.

The Wrights' plane, which made its first successful flights on Dec. 17, 1903, weighed 750 pounds including the pilot and was powered by a 4-cylinder engine developing 12 horsepower. Staib's experimental craft weighs about 300 pounds including the pilot and is powered by two 1-cylinder engines developing a total of 20 horsepower.

Foiling the Wreckers

... thrown down stairs ...

As every parent knows, children often seem to be born demolition experts. With the greatest of ease, they make short work of the sturdiest toys. One manufacturer goes to a great deal of trouble to make destruction as difficult as possible. Toys are put through rigorous tests to see if they are up to everyday wear and tear of the playroom. A deceptively calm moment in the process is shown at right, where children, under the supervision of mothers, are observed at play. Follow-up durability tests are 'slam-bang' affairs as toys are ...

... smashed with hammers ...

... and jumped upon.

Southern Pacific Trains Collide

COALINGA, Calif. (AP) — trains collided head on Monday. Two Southern Pacific freight night on a trestle which collapsed, injuring nine trainmen and killing a number of cattle. The California Highway Patrol said both engines and two cars fell from the trestle into a creek near Highway 33, a half mile east of this central California town.

One train was moving eastward in a fog while the other was going westward on the single track.

VERSATILE COPTER—A work horse helicopter which can carry passengers or cargo has been developed in Bremen, West Germany, as a joint German-American project. Dubbed the "flying crane," the copter can be fitted with a cabin between its gawky legs to carry 45 passengers. Or it can lift up to eight tons of cargo. In successful tests, it has placed high-tension towers, picked up aircraft in inaccessible terrain and been used in air-sea rescue operations.

Seven-League Legs Carry Charlene To 'Eldorado'

By JAMES BACON
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — How does a young girl — even one as pretty as Charlene Holt — get out in the feminine lead of a Howard Hawks movie starring John Wayne and Robert Mitchum?

"I got carried there with my seven-league legs," says Charlene, who also has the face and eyes to go along with her long, shapely gams.

Those legs have carried her around the world, courtesy Madison Avenue, and now into "Eldorado."

In the movie she plays a role — despite its 1870 locale in the Old West — that will show off her legs — and her dramatic ability.

"I play the owner of the Broken Heart Saloon, a siren who cuts the cards with one hand and dances with the boys. My working costume is a deep-cut wasp-waist corset and opera hose, clear up to here," says Charlene.

But what she doesn't know is that she has one of the meekest dramatic parts in the year. It's so meek that Hawks hasn't had the heart to tell her how demanding it is.

(The picture will be through shooting by the time she reads this.) Television viewers will recognize Charlene as the girl who used to do the Revlon commercial.

— especially the eye make-up. She did lots of hoisery commercials, too, but her beautiful face was not seen.

She also was a fashion model. Her modeling career took her to Paris, Rome, London, Zurich, Rio de Janeiro, the Dutch West Indies and other faraway places.

Hawks saw her on a television commercial one night and sent her a ticket to make her acting debut opposite Rock Hudson in "Man's Favorite Sport," "Modeling," says Charlene, "is a good way to get in the movies. It teaches poise and grace and gets your face around where producers can see it."

"Most models have their eyes on the movies and study acting on the side, as I was doing when Mr. Hawks paged me."

Advent Wreath Explained For St. Pat's Group

Mrs. Betty Vodka told about the Advent Wreath for St. Patrick's Altar and Rosary Society Nov. 18 at St. Joseph's Hall. It was reported 1,215 pounds of used clothing is being packed and shipped, directed by John B. O'Brien, St. Vincent DePaul Society, assisted by Holy Name Society members.

Apostolate reports were given by Mrs. Margaret Youngkamp, world apostolate chairman, who reported 14 layettes had been shipped to Holy Father's Store-room; Mrs. Blanch Imberger, who asked for donations to the Madama Plan, which gives financial assistance to mothers who otherwise could not feed their babies. Mrs. Pat Knothe accepted appointment at new parish apostolate.

Nominating committee members named were: Mrs. Mae Moreau, Mrs. Helen Vickers, Mrs. Pat Knothe, Mrs. Pat Kempf and Mrs. Marie Pasika.

suffered its heaviest casualties of the war.

A U.S. spokesman described the action as "a meeting engagement."

"It was a big ambush," said a young officer in the field.

Who was right? Both were.

It's a question of semantics.

The American column was on what is called a "search and destroy" mission. Its men were looking for the enemy, trying to provoke them into battle. The waiting Viet Cong, dug in and well-camouflaged, fired first from positions along a jungle road.

Both sides got what they wanted, and each paid a price. The Viet Cong executed an ambush. We had a "meeting engagement." This probably will be the rough pattern of the war for some time to come.

Our purpose is to destroy the enemy in battle. If he won't come to us, inevitably we will have to go to him.

cally, soldiers aren't supposed to enter enemy traps or be caught by surprise. The word has an inescapably derogatory ring to it — unless you are the one who has done the ambushing. Then it sounds fine.

Take an instance reported in recent news dispatches.

Last Sunday in a jungle battle at the edge of a rubber plantation 35 miles northwest of Saigon a battalion of the famous "Big Red One" — the U.S. 1st Infantry Division — killed 200 or more Viet Cong. The battalion scribes better the kind of warfare going on there, unless it be the term "bushwhacking," which is hardly more acceptable. For being ambushed or bushwhacked amounts to the same thing.

The dictionary defines ambush as "a trap in which concealed persons lie in wait to attack by surprise."

Military commanders hate to admit their troops have been ambushed because this implies to many they may have been derelict in their duty. Theoretically,

It is also the most controversial word. It grates on the ears of U.S. military commanders over there. It grates on the ears of civilians here. But the word ambush will remain reluctantly active in our vocabulary as long as we are battling in places such as Southeast Asia.

There is no other word in the language that presently de-

The first synthetic detergent, turkey red oil, was introduced as early as the middle of the 19th century as a carrier in dyeing fabrics. About a century later, in Germany, detergents began to replace soap as a washing agent. By 1953 the production of synthetic detergents in the United States had exceeded that of soap. However, the widespread use of detergents has created a sewage problem because it accumulates large volumes of unmanageable foam.

BOYS CLUB NOTES

Boys interested in playing Boys Club basketball are to sign up as soon as possible so teams can be selected and a schedule drawn up. Boys are requested to renew memberships so the 1966 program can be completed. The program is tentative, depending on how many boys wish to participate.

Iron men's club had several good lifts the past week, with Jim Dale a press of 100, a snatch of 100 and a jerk of 135. John Allen had a jerk of 161 1/4, a press of 138 1/4 and a dead lift of 330. The class is supervised by Gordon Strain.

Two basketball games were played Wednesday evenings. One game the scores were 47-43 and 54-51. Games are played on two courts, each Monday and Wednesday evenings. Teams are chosen from boys who wish to play.

Boys are looking forward to opening of the new building on Lamine. This is a two story building with basement and will have many facilities lacking in the present location at Convention Hall. It is planned to have a basement workshop to include work benches, wood working tools and other machinery and equipment to enable a boy to learn craft work fundamentals. Work will be supervised by a competent instructor.

Bomber Fleet Cut Meets Opposition In Congress

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon's reported plan for a deep cut in this country's present long-range bomber fleet by 1971 has met formidable opposition in Congress.

Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., chairman of the powerful Senate Armed Services Committee, objected to any such bomber reduction. He also opposed any scaling down of this country's defenses against Soviet bombers.

Russell, who swings considerable influence on Capitol Hill, said Tuesday night, "I am deeply concerned over" Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara's "abandonment of the manned strategic bomber and adoption of the concept that this country is in no danger from Russian attack by manned bombers."

Sources indicated Tuesday night that the Defense Department intends to retire about two-thirds of its force of 680 B52 and B58 jet bombers over the next five fiscal years.

This would leave about 250 of the late-model B52s, greater in range and equipped with more powerful engines than the earlier models. All of the super-sonic B58s would be phased out.

The action may be linked to a reported intention to propose an advanced bomber which would be an adaptation of the controversial TFX, now under development as a fighter of the future.

A number of fighter-interceptor squadrons are to be eliminated by mid-1969. In addition, various Nike Hercules anti-aircraft missile units are to be disbanded.

This suggests that top U.S. authorities now downrate the significance of the Soviet bomber threat in an era of emphasis on missiles in both the Soviet Union and the United States.

The United States is believed by U.S. officials to enjoy a 6-1 edge over the Russians in long-range bombers and about a 3-1 margin over the Russians in long-range missiles.

The cutback in bombers and air defenses was signaled in data supplied to congressmen amplifying on McNamara's announcement Monday that 149 more bases would be shut down, reduced or consolidated.

In his public announcement, McNamara did not hint at any basic change in U.S. defense — although he did say that the Pentagon's base program is shaped to fit "advancements in technology and changes in military requirements."

The Defense Department was to list today the bases that will be closed.

Under Premier Ky

Viet Government Achieves New Record of Durability

By PETER ARNETT

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — In a country where good government has come to mean any government that can survive for more than just a few weeks, Premier Nguyen Cao Ky has made something of a mark.

By mid-December he will have held power for six months. Few expected this when he took over the government in mid-June as the front man for the group of "Young Turk" generals who wield the real power in South Viet Nam.

The civilian government that preceded Ky collapsed under the weight of political rivalry and bickering.

Many thought that Ky, 35, who as Vietnamese air force commander cut a dashing figure in the skies and on the boulevards of Saigon, was a political amateur. He was expected either to tire soon of the rigors of premiership and resign, or get edged out in the backroom by play of military politics.

Ky has not tired of politics, mainly because he doesn't play them. He has no mandate from the people. Ky rules by decree and with the approval of the generals in the back room. The generals have made it clear that as long as Ky wants the job of premier he can have it — as long as he doesn't step on their toes.

Ky, in a series of public speeches and decrees, has attempted to force industry and honesty upon his war-weary and politically disillusioned nation.

Early in his reign he proclaimed austerity measures, broke off diplomatic relations with France and officially declared war on the Viet Cong guerrillas.

But after six months, it is Ky's record time in office, rather than what he has done, that distinguishes his regime.

When he became premier, the American mission in Viet Nam did not seem concerned about whether he was good, bad or indifferent.

In 20 months, between the overthrow and murder of President Ngo Dinh Diem and the appointment of Ky, Viet Nam had gone through three coup d'etats, four attempted coups, and 19 government reshuffles.

U.S. policy was to get a government of stability, and stability was equated with survival. "We'll take anyone, as long as he stays there," one official was quoted as saying at the time.

Ky has stayed put. But he started from rock bottom, and the shadow of the war has darkened all his actions.

The political problem for the United States in Viet Nam has not been to get a democratic government. That wish can be realized only far in the future.

The main problem was to get an effective government. Ky has these actions to his credit so far.

He has gathered around him a group of young ministers and aides who talk enthusiastically about South Viet Nam's future, and who are prepared to listen to American "elder statesman" advice about government, notably from U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge.

Ky is not a military dictator. He is chief spokesman and executive leader of a nine-man national leadership committee of the top generals. This group has presented a united military front for the first time, stilling religious and student opposition to central authority. Ky doesn't intend to suffer the fate of the former strongman, Gen. Nguyen Khanh, who was destroyed because civilian opposition penetrated the chinks of the armor of the military group supporting him. Ky has no chinks.

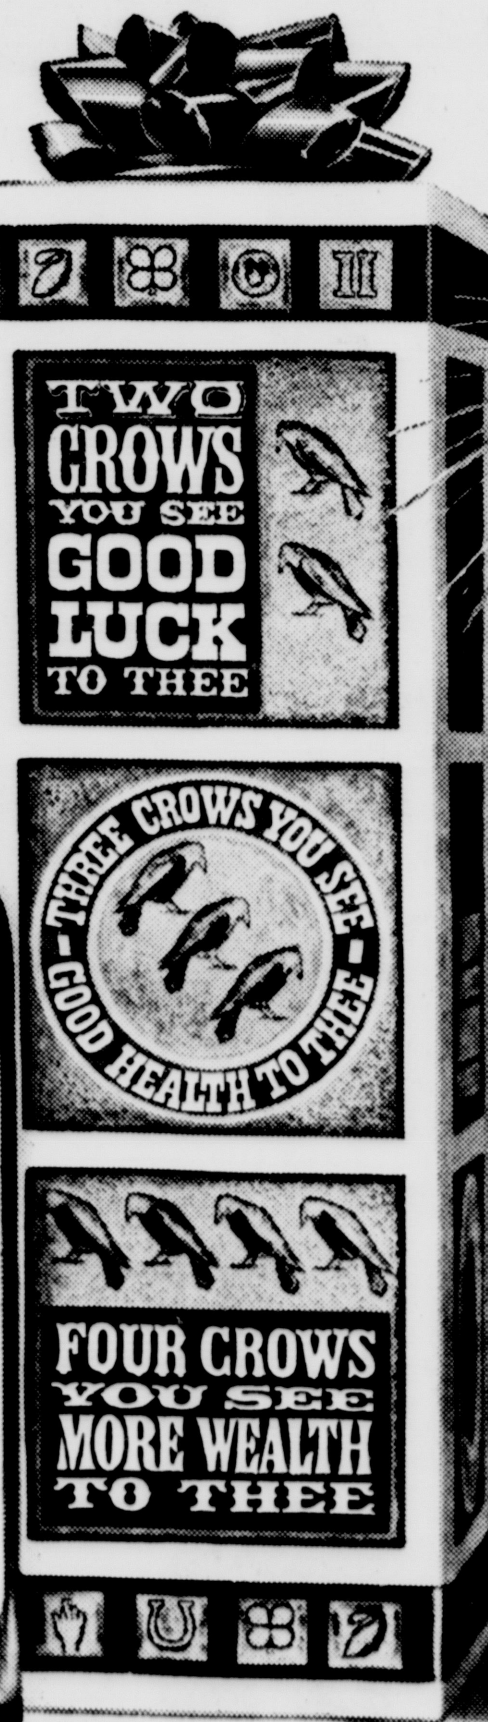

Ky improved the morale of the armed forces by raising their pay 40 per cent and liberalizing promotions. Whether these measures will counteract the impact of morale from a recent Communist attacks remains to be seen.

Ky has attempted to come to grips with the problems of rural pacification by introducing a land reform program, and training cadres to work among villagers. The reform program has hardly gotten off the ground because much of the land he is giving away is in the hands of the Viet Cong. And Ky is finding it as difficult as his predecessors to get people interested enough in working in the villages on pacification projects. Ky has attempted to improve his image at home and abroad by traveling and by sending his attractive wife, Mai, to charity functions and hospitals. But Ky has found that popularity is elusive. To Vietnamese living outside the cities, Ky is just another name. Vietnamese have become cynical about their leaders and don't seem to take them seriously. Ky has yet to spark much enthusiasm.

He has attempted to tackle some major problems. One of these is corruption, a permanent canker within Vietnamese officialdom.

Few Convictions

Boston Hoodlums Rack Up 28 Slayings In 20 Months

BOSTON (AP) — In Boston the hoodlums are playing so rough these days, says a top homicide detective, that they go out and kill on their lunch hour and get back to work or hang-out before the 1 p.m. whistle blows.

Greater Boston hoodlums have racked up 28 slayings and a dozen attempts in the past 20 months.

Not all the slayings were lunch-hour jobs but most of them were brazen, committed in the daytime and often before witnesses.

Yet, there have been only two convictions and only five slaying cases are pending in court. Police complain they are receiving no cooperation from the public.

"We've talked with dozens of people at murder scenes," said a top officer, "but nobody seems to see or hear anymore. This is not apathy, but obviously a general fear of retaliation," he added.

Lt. Edward Sherry, veteran Boston homicide squad detective, told The Associated Press: "That figure of 28 gangland-style killings is not the final count. We expect another half dozen or so more such killings."

"Vengeance is a big factor in this thing and we're handicapped by the lack of public cooperation. The telephone doesn't ring and the mail doesn't bring even anonymous tips on these slayings."

Sherry said "Practically all these slayings involve punks gone wild. There's no big overlord sitting on a throne. Nobody's trying to grab power or jurisdiction over any organized racket."

"The majority of these killings are among punks with no regard for human life."

Sherry counts a dozen of the slayings as the result of a feud between two gang factions, one led by the three McLaughlin brothers of Charlestown and the other by James (Buddy) McLean of Somerville.

"And the feud," said Sherry, "apparently continues although McLean and two McLaughlins were killed and the third McLaughlin is under a death sentence for murder."

"We feel the other murders were the result of double-crosses in such rackets as counterfeiting, narcotics and shylocking" — money lending at usurious rates.

Police Chief Thomas J. O'Brien had this to say about the slayings:

"I felt that when the so-called groups from Somerville and Charlestown were pretty near depleted that it would be over, but they seem as if they're going to continue it. Evidently it is covering a vaster area than we first thought."

O'Brien pointed out that there's $2.5 million kicking around from the nation's two biggest cash robberies — the Brink's robbery in Boston in 1950 and the still-unsolved Plymouth mail truck robbery of 1962.

O'Brien said there's the possibility one group is trying to extort money from the men who have it and that a second group was hired to eliminate the shaken-down men.

Of the McLean-McLaughlin feud, Sherry said:

"This dates back four years during a beach party at Salisbury Beach, a favorite resort on the northern Massachusetts seacoast.

"George McLaughlin is supposed to have made an insulting pass at McLean's girl friend or wife. McLean gave McLaughlin the beating of his life, sending him to a hospital."

"A few days later McLean spotted some men planting a five-stick bundle of dynamite in his parked car. McLean fired a shot at the men and they fled."

Not long afterward, George's brother, Bernard McLaughlin, 51, a reputed strong-arm in the loan shark business, was shot dead on busy City Square, Charlestown, during the noon hour.

"Like all the other slayings," Sherry said, "we could never get any witnesses and we had to release McLean."

Edward J. (Punchy) McLaughlin, 46, was victim No. 24. He was shot Oct. 20 after two previous attempts on his life. On the second try gunmen had shot off his right hand.

Nine days later Buddy McLean became victim No. 25.

Punchy McLaughlin was killed at a bus stop en route to the murder trial of his brother, George, 37.

Sherry said "Punchy was carrying a paper bag when he was shot. He passed it to a woman passer-by and told her to get rid of it."

"He took the precaution to get the gun off his person, but with his dying breath he wouldn't tell us who shot him."

The investigator said "Punchy knew for a long time he was going to make the 'hit' list. But like all the others like him he wouldn't help us, even though he once used the police as a shield against his assassins."

"He was in a department store when he saw his would-be killers waiting for him outside. Punchy picked an item off a counter and stuffed it in his pocket. He was arrested for shoplifting and escorted out of store by two police officers, just as he had planned."

George McLaughlin was convicted and sentenced to death last October for killing a young bank clerk — victim No. 1 — at a christening party.

The bloodiest day in the gangland war was last Nov. 15 when gunmen killed three men in two separate shootings.

Gov. John A. Volpe said he is "amazed and appalled" by the extent of the brazen killings and recently called for renewed police action to bring them to a halt.

As one step, Massachusetts Atty. Gen. Edward W. Brooke recommended legislation to provide detective staffs in the offices of district attorneys and increase the budget of the state police.

Also proposed were the use of grand juries to supplement police investigations of the slayings and the enactment of stricter laws regulating the purchase and concealment of weapons.

Business Analysis

General Interest Rate Rise Affects Almost Everyone

BY SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Credit is a way of life with many American families and most businessmen. A general rise in interest rates thus can affect the family budget and business operating costs.

But by how much? And how will they react? Those are the questions now that the Federal Reserve Board has raised the basic interest rate. It now charges banks 4½ per cent to borrow from it instead of the 4 per cent as of last week. This led many commercial banks to raise their own prime, or basic, rate for loans to business from the previous 4½ per cent to 5 per cent.

The question is whether this will spiral into higher borrowing costs for consumers and for most businessmen. And if it does, will this dim the ardor of many families for new gadgets bought on time, cause many firms to trim borrowing plans — or to raise prices to offset rising operating costs.

Those who think the effects of the Fed's action may be slight argue this way:

—Few business loans of late have been made at the old prime rate of 4½ per cent. Most firms have been paying 5 per cent or more to get funds. The big demand for credit may push the borrowing costs for the least favorable risks a bit higher. But few customers are likely to be driven away.

—Interest is tax deductible. That is, it is part of operating costs to be charged off before paying the corporate income tax. This is still near 50 per cent, so businessmen figure that, in effect, the Treasury will be paying about half of any increase in borrowing costs.

—Consumers pay little attention to interest rates, according to lenders. What they want to know is the amount of the monthly payment and how it fits their paycheck. A rise of a few cents due to higher interest costs may mean little in today's affluent society.

But many critics of the Federal Reserve's tighter money policy fear the worst. And here are some of the dire possibilities they foresee:

—Costlier borrowing and tighter credit may lead corporations to take a second look at the cost of expansion plans, and at the probable profits to be made from taking in more plant and equipment. If business capital spending drops, the whole economy will suffer.

—Dearer money will make it more expensive for businessmen to carry inventories, thus either trimming their buying from producers, or tempting them to raise prices to their customers — losing a few, if they do.

—Bond offerings to finance state and local building of schools, roads, waterworks and the like will be harder to float and costlier to the taxpayers who ultimately foot the interest charges.

—The U.S. Treasury must borrow more money to finance a growing deficit — and already its annual interest cost has risen to the $12-billion level.

—Building and sale of new homes has been in the doldrums of late. If mortgage costs rise, it could be still harder to find buyers.

No Big Policy Change

See More 'Roving Strikes' For US Units In Viet Nam

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. forces probably will use intensified "roving strikes" by helicopter-borne fighting men against a heavier inflow of Communist North Vietnamese troops.

Barring a major change in national policy, it is considered highly unlikely that the United States will send troops into Laos to form a fence to cut off the movement of North Vietnamese regulars into beleaguered South Viet Nam. Also, Cambodia's professed neutrality will be respected, even though U.S. officers believe Communist troops have used that country as a sanctuary.

This picture emerged from interviews with top sources familiar with the planning in the growing war in Viet Nam.

There is a body of opinion in the military which favors the idea of sending U.S. troops into Laos and thus to try to sever the infiltration lines over which a growing number of North Vietnamese regulars are believed moving south.

As one source put it, "It's better to put a bucket under the faucet than to try to mop up the floor."

Within the present policy, sources said, the United States is basically fighting a strategic defensive in its efforts to save South Viet Nam from being overrun by the Communists.

The best way to do this, experts said, is to take the tactical offensive — "to find the Communists and cut them to pieces."

This is a course of action which U.S. ground combat forces have been following for months and which apparently will be amplified.

Officials cite the recent bloody battle in the Ia Drang Valley as an example of what could be expected in the future. In that running fight, troops of the U.S. 1st Cavalry, Airmobile, Division and their South Vietnamese allies killed nearly 2,300 of the enemy. U.S. losses totaled less than 10 per cent of the Communist dead.

There is every indication that the section of the infiltration network extending from North Viet Nam through Laos is in for some heavy aerial pounding.

Information available here suggests that the Communists have made progressive improvements over the past year in their ability to move both northward and southward through Laos.

One informant said there is "a significant amount of evidence that the roads have been improved and that the network of roads and trails has been extended."

A key factor in weighing the impact of increased Communist infiltration is an evaluation of the capability of the Communists to sustain their forces. This is still an imponderable, U.S. sources said.

U.S. authorities here estimate the North Vietnamese have about 30 battalions in South Viet Nam.

Assuming they double their forces, the sources said, it is estimated it would take about 90 tons of supplies a day to maintain a force of this size.

North Vietnamese battalions total about 400 or 500 men each. At this level, 60 battalions would total some 30,000 men.

In the light of this, U.S. authorities consider of vital importance roving strikes into areas where the Communists have built up arms and food caches.

If the infiltration routes through Laos come under heavy air attack, the North Vietnamese and their Viet Cong allies would have to fall back on these stored-up stocks. Destroy these stocks, and the enemy has been dealt a serious blow, officials said.

In the same context, authorities rate as of primary impor-

Change In Trend

Soviets Show Orientals As Their Historical Foe

By HENRY S. BRADSHAW

MOSCOW (AP) — There it was, on Moscow's television screens: A Soviet border defense soldier pointing his bayonet to the east, where a slant-eyed and unmistakably oriental figure, his hair in a pig-tail, peered over the horizon.

The program was one of folk songs, illustrated with drawings, depicting the heroism of troops who defend Soviet frontiers.

Not so long ago Soviet radio and television had songs about the friendly Chinese comrades in the east. These disappeared as the two Communist nations sank into today's bitterly hostile conflict of nationalism and ideology.

The use of an oriental face to represent the enemy goes much deeper than the Moscow-Peking dispute.

It spans more than seven centuries of Soviet history, the complex subject of Soviet racial prejudices and a possible fear of the massive size of China's population.

It is particularly significant now in a nation that has been taught over the 48 years since the Bolshevik Revolution that the capitalistic West is the enemy.

Today an American occasionally may hear a Soviet citizen say that "we westerners" or "we white people" must stick together against a yellow peril. This means that at least some Soviets think there are more important things than the idea of all Communists sticking together against the capitalists.

But how many Soviets? How do the Soviet people as a whole feel about the Chinese? And about uniting with Americans to oppose them?

Western-style opinion polls exist in only a limited way here, mostly unpublished. Westerners are restricted in their freedom to discuss attitudes with Soviets. So generalizations have to be cautious.

But the Soviets regard themselves as westerners. Their history is one of trying to catch up with the West. It is a history of shunning the oriental.

The historic sense of danger from the East and an ingrained dislike of the Chinese were long latent. Soviet leaders have awakened it.

They picture the Chinese Communists as in a Stalinist period, which is a dirty term here now. Soviets know that Stalin expanded the borders of the Soviet Union.

In the last days of his premiership, Nikita S. Khrushchev did much to spread the idea of a Chinese danger. He publicized a longstanding Chinese claim to some 580,000 square miles of border regions held by the Soviets and he opened the door of secrecy a crack to reveal minor border clashes.

His successors have closed that door again but the Soviets are still somewhat apprehensive.

Passing remarks show a strong awareness of China's 750 million people — three times the U.S.S.R.'s population. The Soviets learned a lot of wars ago that numbers count and they have no desire to tangle with a massive, militant, menacing China.

No one here is suggesting that a Sino-Soviet war is coming soon. It is just that many signs point to a growing feeling that the most likely future enemy is in the East rather than the West.

Four Bobcats were taken into Pack 61, Trinity Lutheran Church, by Cubmaster Bill Fingland at the November pack meeting in a traditional Indian campfire ceremony. He stressed the importance of Scouting in helping the boys grow physically, mentally and morally. At the conclusion of the ceremony, Chris Roose, Floyd Finley, Doug Benitz, and Joe Watson were presented neckerchiefs by the Pack which were tied on by their mothers, as well as Bobcat pins. Mrs. Chris Roose is the new den mother and Mark Mosier was welcomed as a transfer to Den 3.

Other awards during the evening included Wolf badge and mother's pin to Tommy Knight; Lion badge and mother's pin to Jeff Barnes; Donner stripes to Warren Pahlow and Bobby Bruns; membership cards to Gregg Wear and Mrs. Bob Hartley; Den Chief cords to Tommy Brown and Ronnie Wells and two year Den Chief pin to Bill Fingland, Jr. Lion books were given to Warren Pahlow and Dudley Lehmer.

Den 2 conducted the flag ceremony with Steve Dollard and David Wells, flag bearers and Bobby Boone and Steve Wells, color guards. Roger Fingland lit the "Spirit of Cub Scouting" candle with a welcome to the new boys and Den 1 demonstrated mouth to mouth resus-

The song period was led by the Rev. Paul Doering, pastor, and Den 2 demonstrated several physical fitness exercises led by Tommy Brown, den chief.

Den 3 presented the skit, "How to Pass the Achievements for the Wolf Badge," with Ronnie Wells, den chief in charge. Participating were Pat Butler, Mark Mosier, Tommy Estes, Tommy Knight, Bobby Bruns, and Bobby Hartley. They were rewarded with a "watermelon cheer."

Fingland announced the Christmas Sharing Project with the following committee: general chairman, Warren Pahlow; den,
